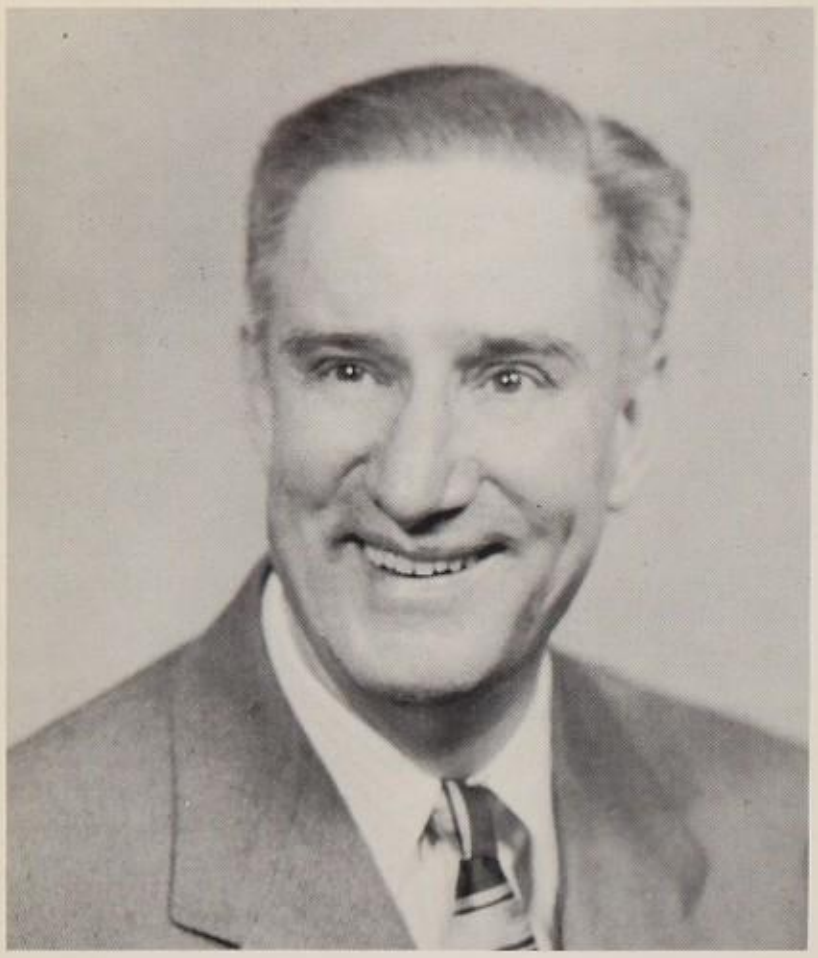
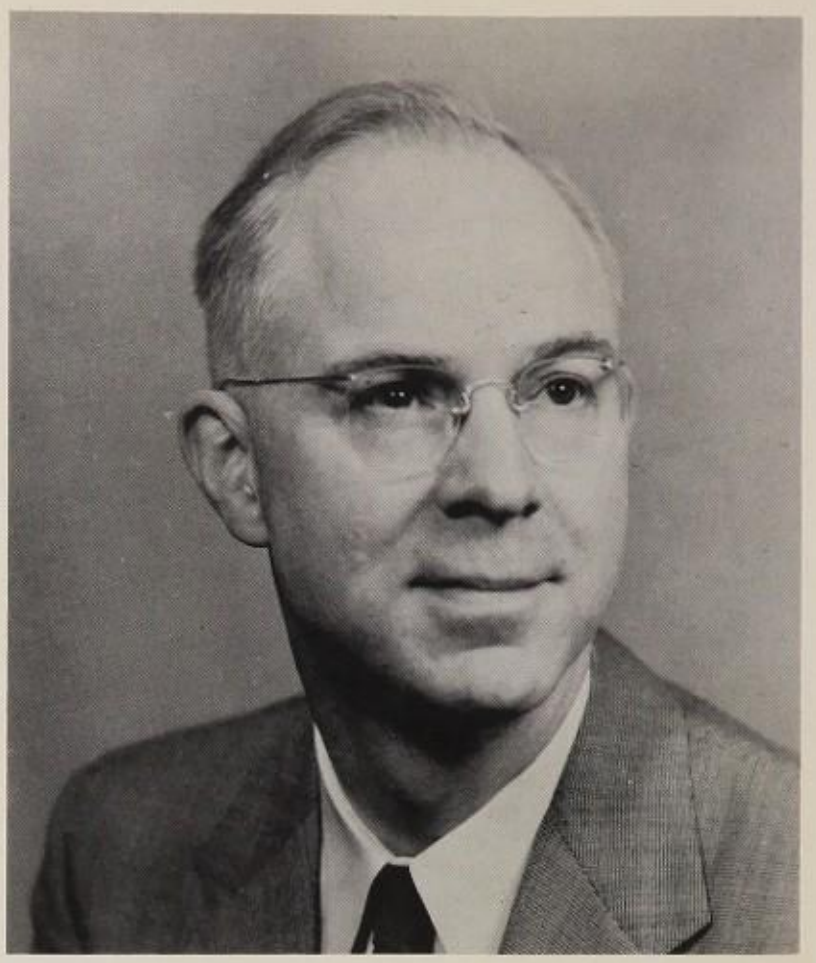
NEW ROCHELLE HIGH SCHOOL

1958



HARRY F HAIGH



C. J. BROADHEAD

Dedication

Honor is brought to N.R.H.S. not only on the football field but also in the fields of vocal and instrumental music. In considering this recognition, two men immediately come to mind—our own C. J. Broadhead and Harry F. Haigh. By giving unselfishly of their time and effort, they have, through concerts, entering competitions and providing unusually excellent musical training for us and many before us, brought honor and respect to New Rochelle High School. The personality and vitality of these outstanding musicians is felt by all students, whether or not they come into personal contact with them.

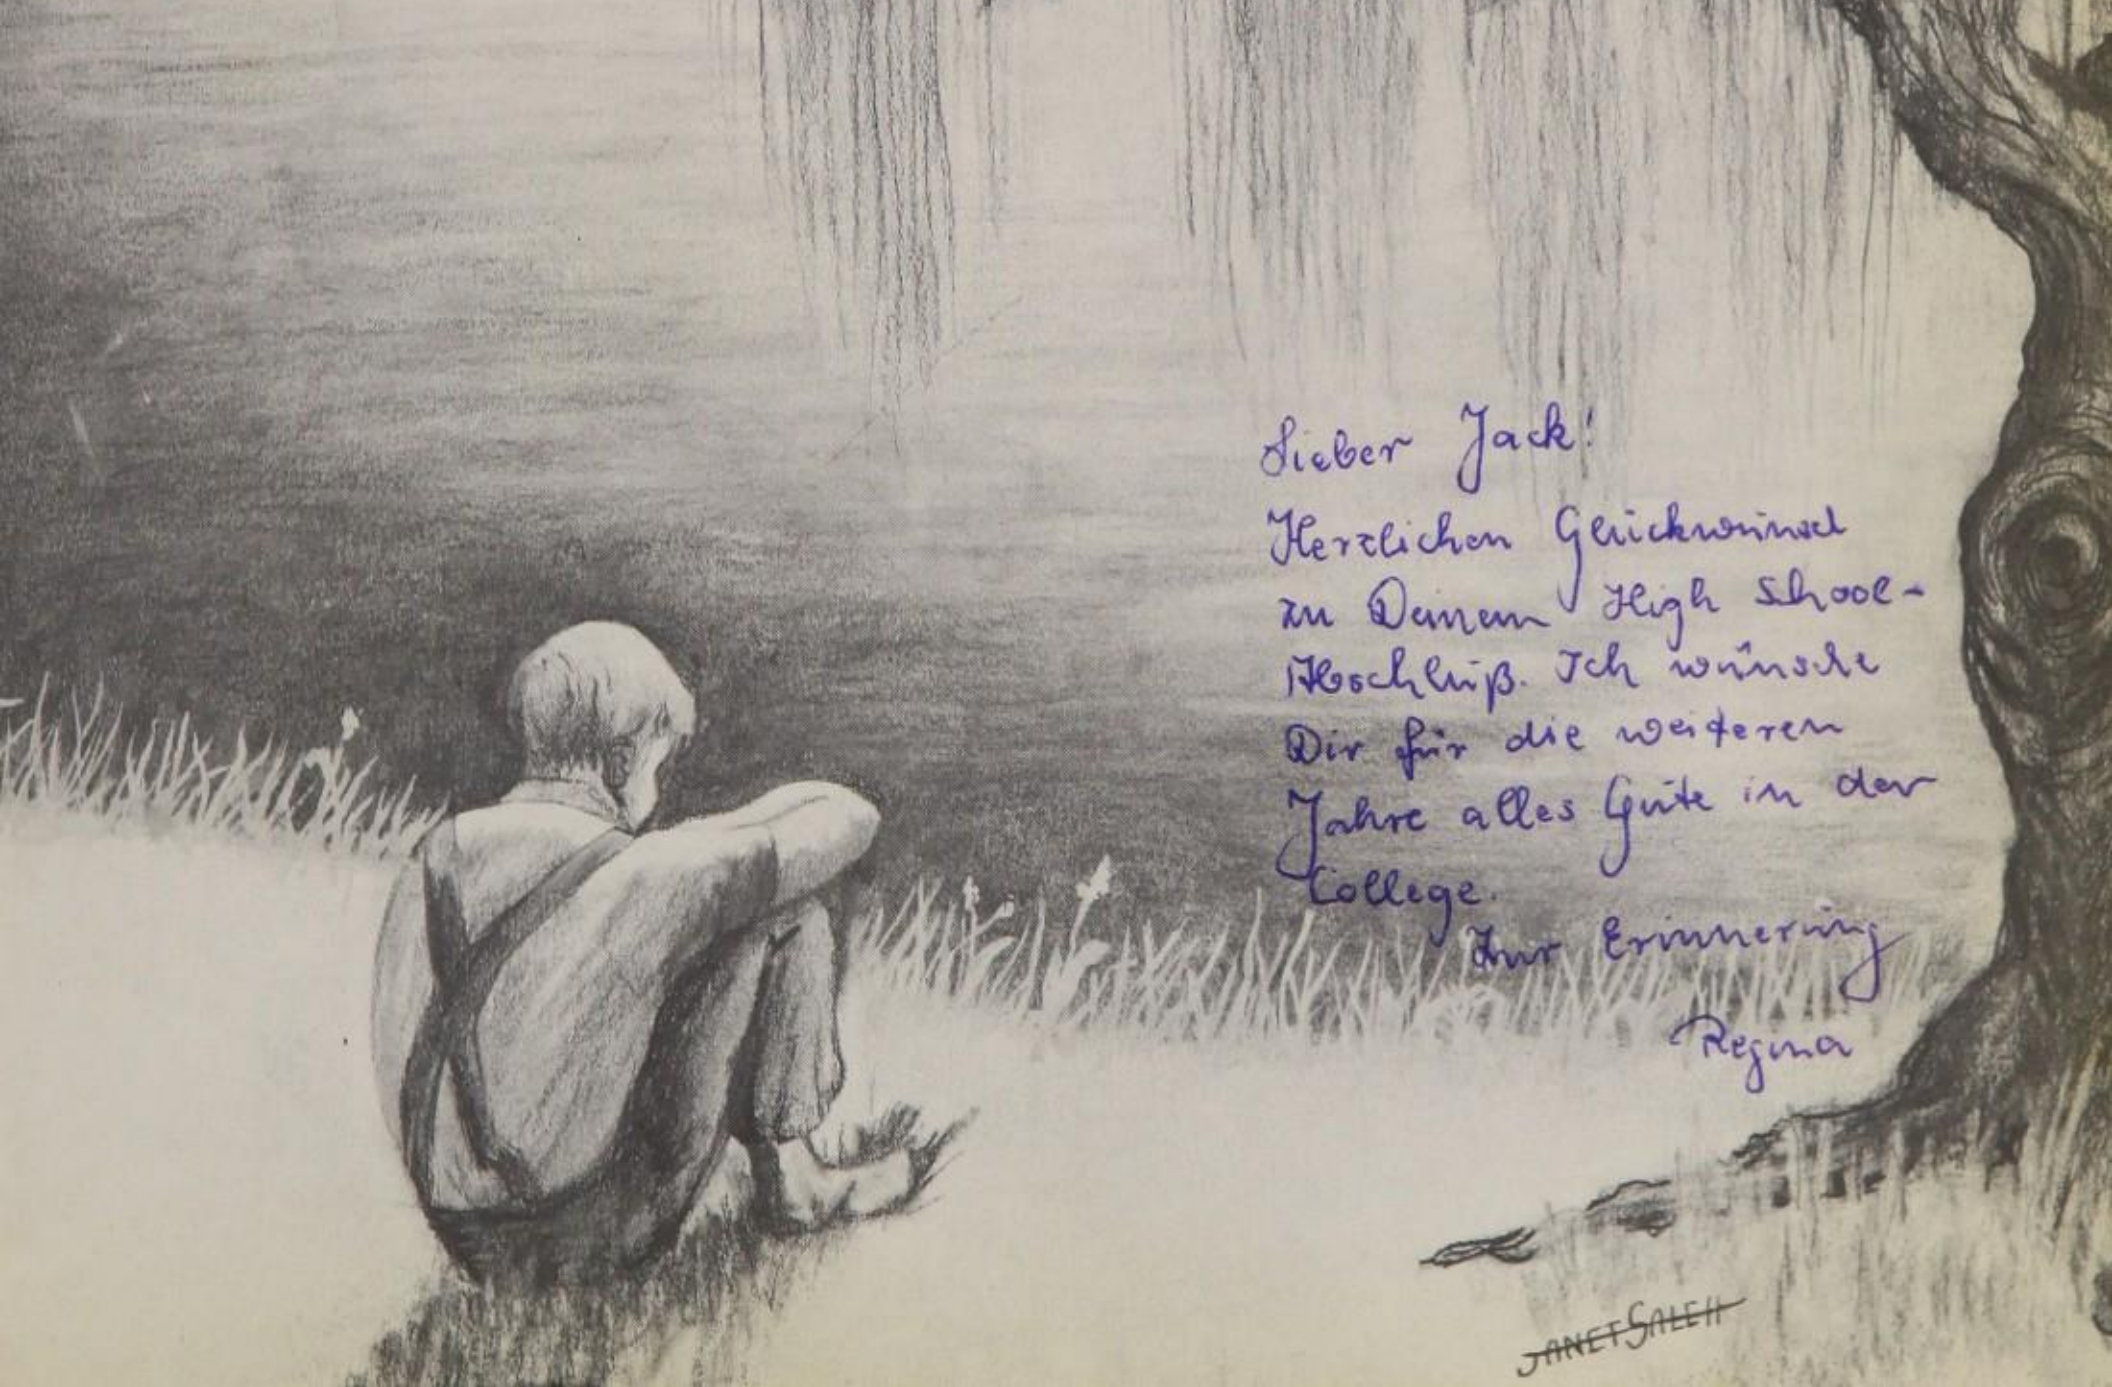
This year when our school day was so divided, music has been a unifying factor. The spirit cultivated by assemblies, pep-rallies, concerts and football games has drawn the students together into a unified group. The choirs, band, and orchestra have all played an important part in these activities.

When we reflect on our years in N.R.H.S., we realize how much more pleasure was added to them through the never-ending efforts of this hard-working two-some. We, the Class of 1958, offer our thanks to you "Mr. B.", for your part in the assemblies, choir trips, caroling, and concerts. And to you, Mr. Haigh, we give our deep appreciation for the part you have played in the football games, pep rallies, assemblies, trips and concerts.

To both of you, as members of the student body, we give our heartfelt gratitude for all that you have done, and as the Class of 1958, we dedicate our yearbook to you.

Theme

Along the Mississippi in a little cotton town
Came a fancy white showboat with its wheel going roun'
It tooted to the crowd, and it seems they understood:
"Git out from under that ole cottonwood!"
Oh shuffle on board, and I'll carry you to sea
Come on and find a new world with me.
I'll show you dancers, minstrels and great burly men
I'll show you honeysuckle beauties, magicians, and then
You'll know there's more to life than your own little hole
You got to search and search 'till you find your goal.
So folks toot your whistles and wave your hands high—
Oh follow the Mississippi, but reach for the sky."



Lieber Jack!
Herzlichen Glückwunsch
zu Deinem High School-
Abschluß. Ich wünsche
Dir für die weiteren
Jahre alles Gute in der
College.

Memorial

Miss Sylva Kunce

One of the tragedies in life is the loss of a dear, true friend. We at New Rochelle High School lost such a friend last summer.

Sylva Kunce was admired by her colleagues, respected by her pupils, adored by all who knew her. As a teacher in New Rochelle High School, Miss Kunce accomplished what to others might have seemed impossible. Through her efforts, both a "Psychology" and a "Human Relations" department were established, which constitute a yet closer and stronger bond between teacher and pupil.

How well Miss Kunce knew her subject, "Psychology"! She taught us not only the basic fundamentals which we shall long remember, but also how to live with ourselves and how to solve our problems.

But being a "top-notch" teacher was not Miss Kunce's only accomplishment. She was active in civic affairs and was invaluable to the promotion of Family Service in our community.

She opened her heart to all around her; she was always ready to help and to ease a troubled mind; she was a friend to those who needed a friend.

Thank you for having been our friend — Sylva Kunce.

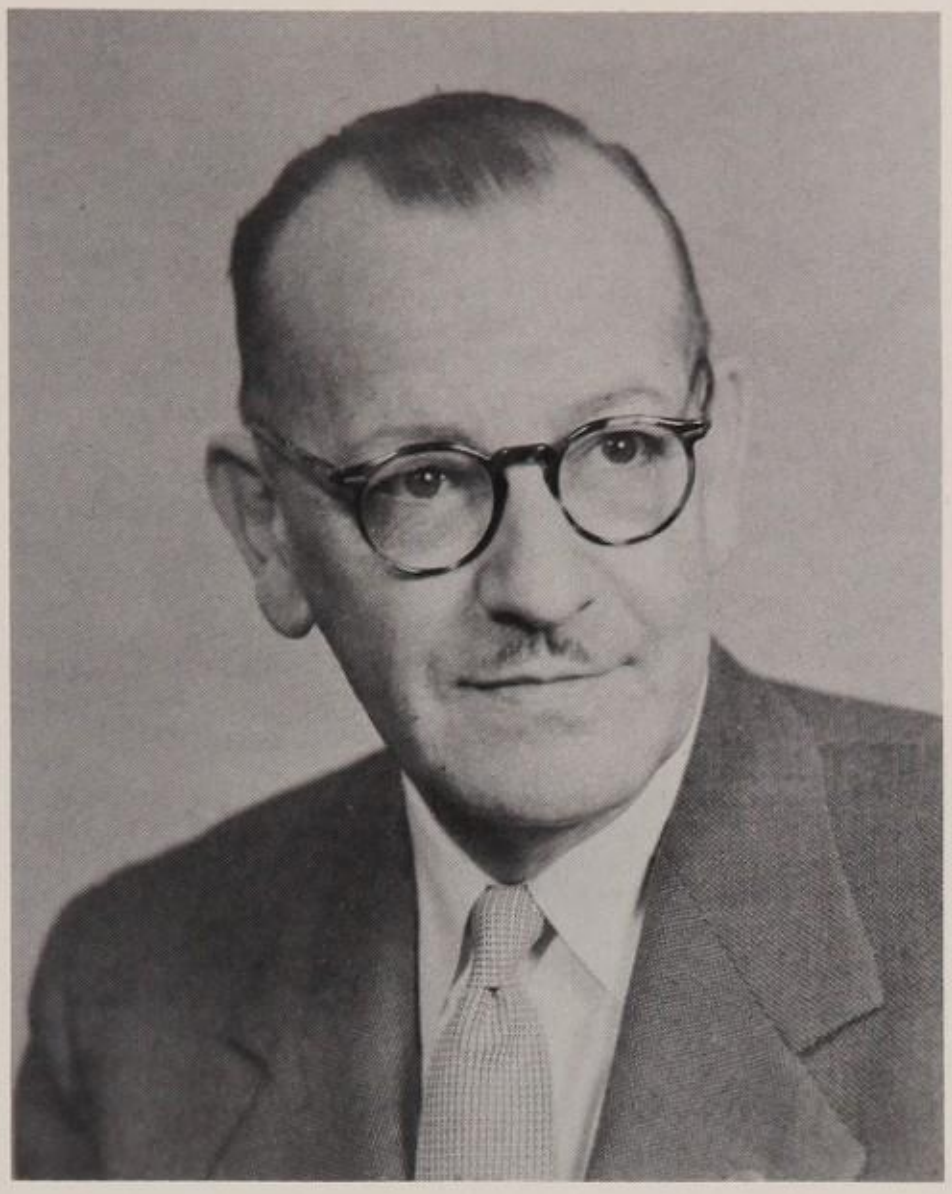
Dedication



Mr. Edward J. Fitzgerald

Death takes its toll among so many, and for us at New Rochelle High School it took a faithful friend, Edward J. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Fitzgerald was a person deeply admired by the students and faculty and justly respected. Mr. Fitzgerald had for many years been the school's Director of the Placement Bureau. His earnest interest and effort made it more than a job to him; for he took an understanding hand in the welfare of the students and community businessmen. He stood as the students' guide between the school and the outside business world.

We of the New Rochelle High School have indeed lost a true friend, full of humor, personality, and devotion, a friend whom we can never thank enough for all he has done and all he has stood for.

FAREWELL TO THE CLASS OF 1958

The New Rochelle Class of 1958, like its immediate predecessors and the classes that will follow, will go out into a world which demands from each person an interest in and a deep concern for the survival of basic principles—matters of moral, spiritual, civic, national, and world behavior. In today's age, no man can be sufficient unto himself; no man can afford not to care about the world around him. Caring motivates learning; learning forms a basis for conviction and action in accordance with beliefs.

I would wish for you the power to care about these things which are truly important, and caring—the will to learn, to judge, to believe, and finally, a driving urge to act singly and in concert with others of like mind, in terms of your studied convictions.

May God bless each one of you.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Donald K. Phillips

RIVER PILOTS

MISS F. LORETTA COONS
Principal

The greatest single contributing factor to the success of any organization is its leader. This person must have the heart to conceive, the hand to execute, and the understanding to direct. We, at New Rochelle High School, are fortunate in that our principal, F. Loretta Coons, is such a person.

Here at the "twin lakes" Miss Coons is not only admired for her wise counsel, but is also loved for the fine person that she is. She has always displayed the utmost enthusiasm concerning our academic and extra-curricular interests. Her unflagging spirit and unswerving loyalty to the school are something that we, the Class of 1958, will remember far beyond the date of our graduation.

F. Loretta Coons

MR. HAROLD A. DALEY
Assistant Principal

Best Luck Always, H. Daley

As second in command, Mr. Daley has the important responsibility of assisting Miss Coons in the smooth operation of the school. In this, his second year as Assistant Principal he has proved once again that he is more than capable of handling the duties of this vital post. This is a task which is frequently underestimated by many of us.

As an advisor and as a friend, we have always found him a warm and understanding person. His ever-present good nature and his affable personality are practically taken for granted by us.

We wish to sincerely thank him for the wonderful effect he has had on us during our years at New Rochelle High School.

MR. JOHN T. DONOVAN
Assistant Principal

Good Luck J. Donovan

To meet the increasing demands of our ever-expanding high school, an additional assistant principal's position was created. Mr. Donovan was the man called upon to fill this important post. Mr. Donovan brings with him the experience that he achieved in his endeavors in our Guidance Department. Thus, we can well understand how he so successfully adapted himself to the responsibilities of an assistant principal. The students and faculty alike can readily attest that his warm sense of humor and sharp wit have made working with him a delight.

We, the Class of 1958, wish to congratulate Mr. Donovan on the success with which he has handled his new position.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

New Rochelle we sing to thee
Alma Mater dear
Cherished will our memories be
Of the hours spent here

This echoing refrain will always ring through our memories as we look back upon the days spent in New Rochelle High School. It will not be just a song to us but something symbolic which represents a period of vital importance in our lives.

We entered this school as the youngest members of the student body. Our days were filled with anticipation and uncertainty as we strove to make ourselves a part of the already established organization. The first step in our climb towards our goal of unity was electing as our class officers: Anthony Esposito, David Brockway, Kendall Brinley, and Joseph Rende. Under the leadership of our class government and faculty advisors, we entered enthusiastically into all phases of school life. We were the first sophomore class in many years to be represented on the Varsity basketball squad by David Brockway and John Counts. With experience behind us and opportunity ahead, we entered our junior year.

As juniors we chose Dave Brockway, Martin Lapidus, Susan Bromley, and Joseph Rende to lead us. As the year progressed, we began to plan for our Junior Prom, the second biggest social event of the school year. All the time we were building ourselves into a senior class worthy of New Rochelle High School.

We fiinished our last year at New Rochelle High School with David Brockway, Barney Skolnik, Abby Dickler, and David Nawi as our leaders. We spent two years in preparation, and succeeded in molding our class into a single united body, which has contributed outstandingly to the school in activities as well as academic subjects.

This is the year that we, one-time onlookers, became participants in the traditional functions such as Class Day, Class Gift, Senior Prom, and Graduation. Now we are leaving New Rochelle High School with completed memories of our high school sports, activities, and life. We gained more than academic knowledge; we have matured as individuals, and are prepared to set out on our various paths.

We love to gaze across the lakes
To the tower proudly high
A symbol of the lives we make
The goals for which we strive.

In Memoriam

MARCIA WEINSTEIN

About very few people can it be said that everything they did was as nearly perfect as possible, but about Marcia Weinstein we can truly say this. Marcia put all her effort into everything she undertook, and was rewarded with success. She derived great pleasure from the knowledge that she had attained her goal.

As an honor student, Marcia was one of the candidates for the National Honor Society of our school. Her scholastic achievements were further reflected by the fact that she qualified for Scholarship Club every term. Her outstanding proficiency in language placed her in competition for the annual language prizes.

Since her entrance into New Rochelle High School as a sophomore, Marcia participated in many school activities. Her membership in Social Service Club, Creative Writing Club, Horseback Riding Club, Biology Club, and French Club displayed her unusual versatility.

Outside of school, Marcia's interests were equally diversified. Her musical ability resulted in her spending many happy hours at the piano, while her athletic pursuits included horseback riding and tennis.

Those who knew her best will always remember her everpresent smile which personified her constant cheerfulnss. It was this unfailing cheerfulness which won her the friendship of many of us. It is with a feeling of sadness and a deep sense of loss that we realize that Marcia will no longer be among us, but her spirit shall remain in our memories forever.

Wouldn't It

I

The parking situation
Would really be cool,
If private parking for seniors
Were made the new rule.

II

The parking facilities
Are way below par,
To park close to school
One must own a toy car.

III

While worldly great seniors,
Get up on their feet.
Each Sophomore and Junior,
Should stay in his seat.

IV

The assembly is over,
"To the doors," is the cry.
Underclassmen rush out,
As the seniors stand by.

V

The senior court,
Is barren and bare.
You must get there early,
Or fight for a chair.

Be Lovely!

VI

Where are the counselors?
Where do they hide?
A long line of students
Is forming outside.

VII

The ideal counselor,
Who lives in our dreams,
Has nothing to do
But encourage our schemes.

VIII

A recreation room
Is what we could use
For smoking and dancing,
And getting the news.

IX

Waiting for lunches
Consumes lots of time,
'Cause Soph'mores and Juniors
Lengthen the line.

X

A line for seniors
Is what should be formed
For getting hot lunches,
Just as they are warmed.

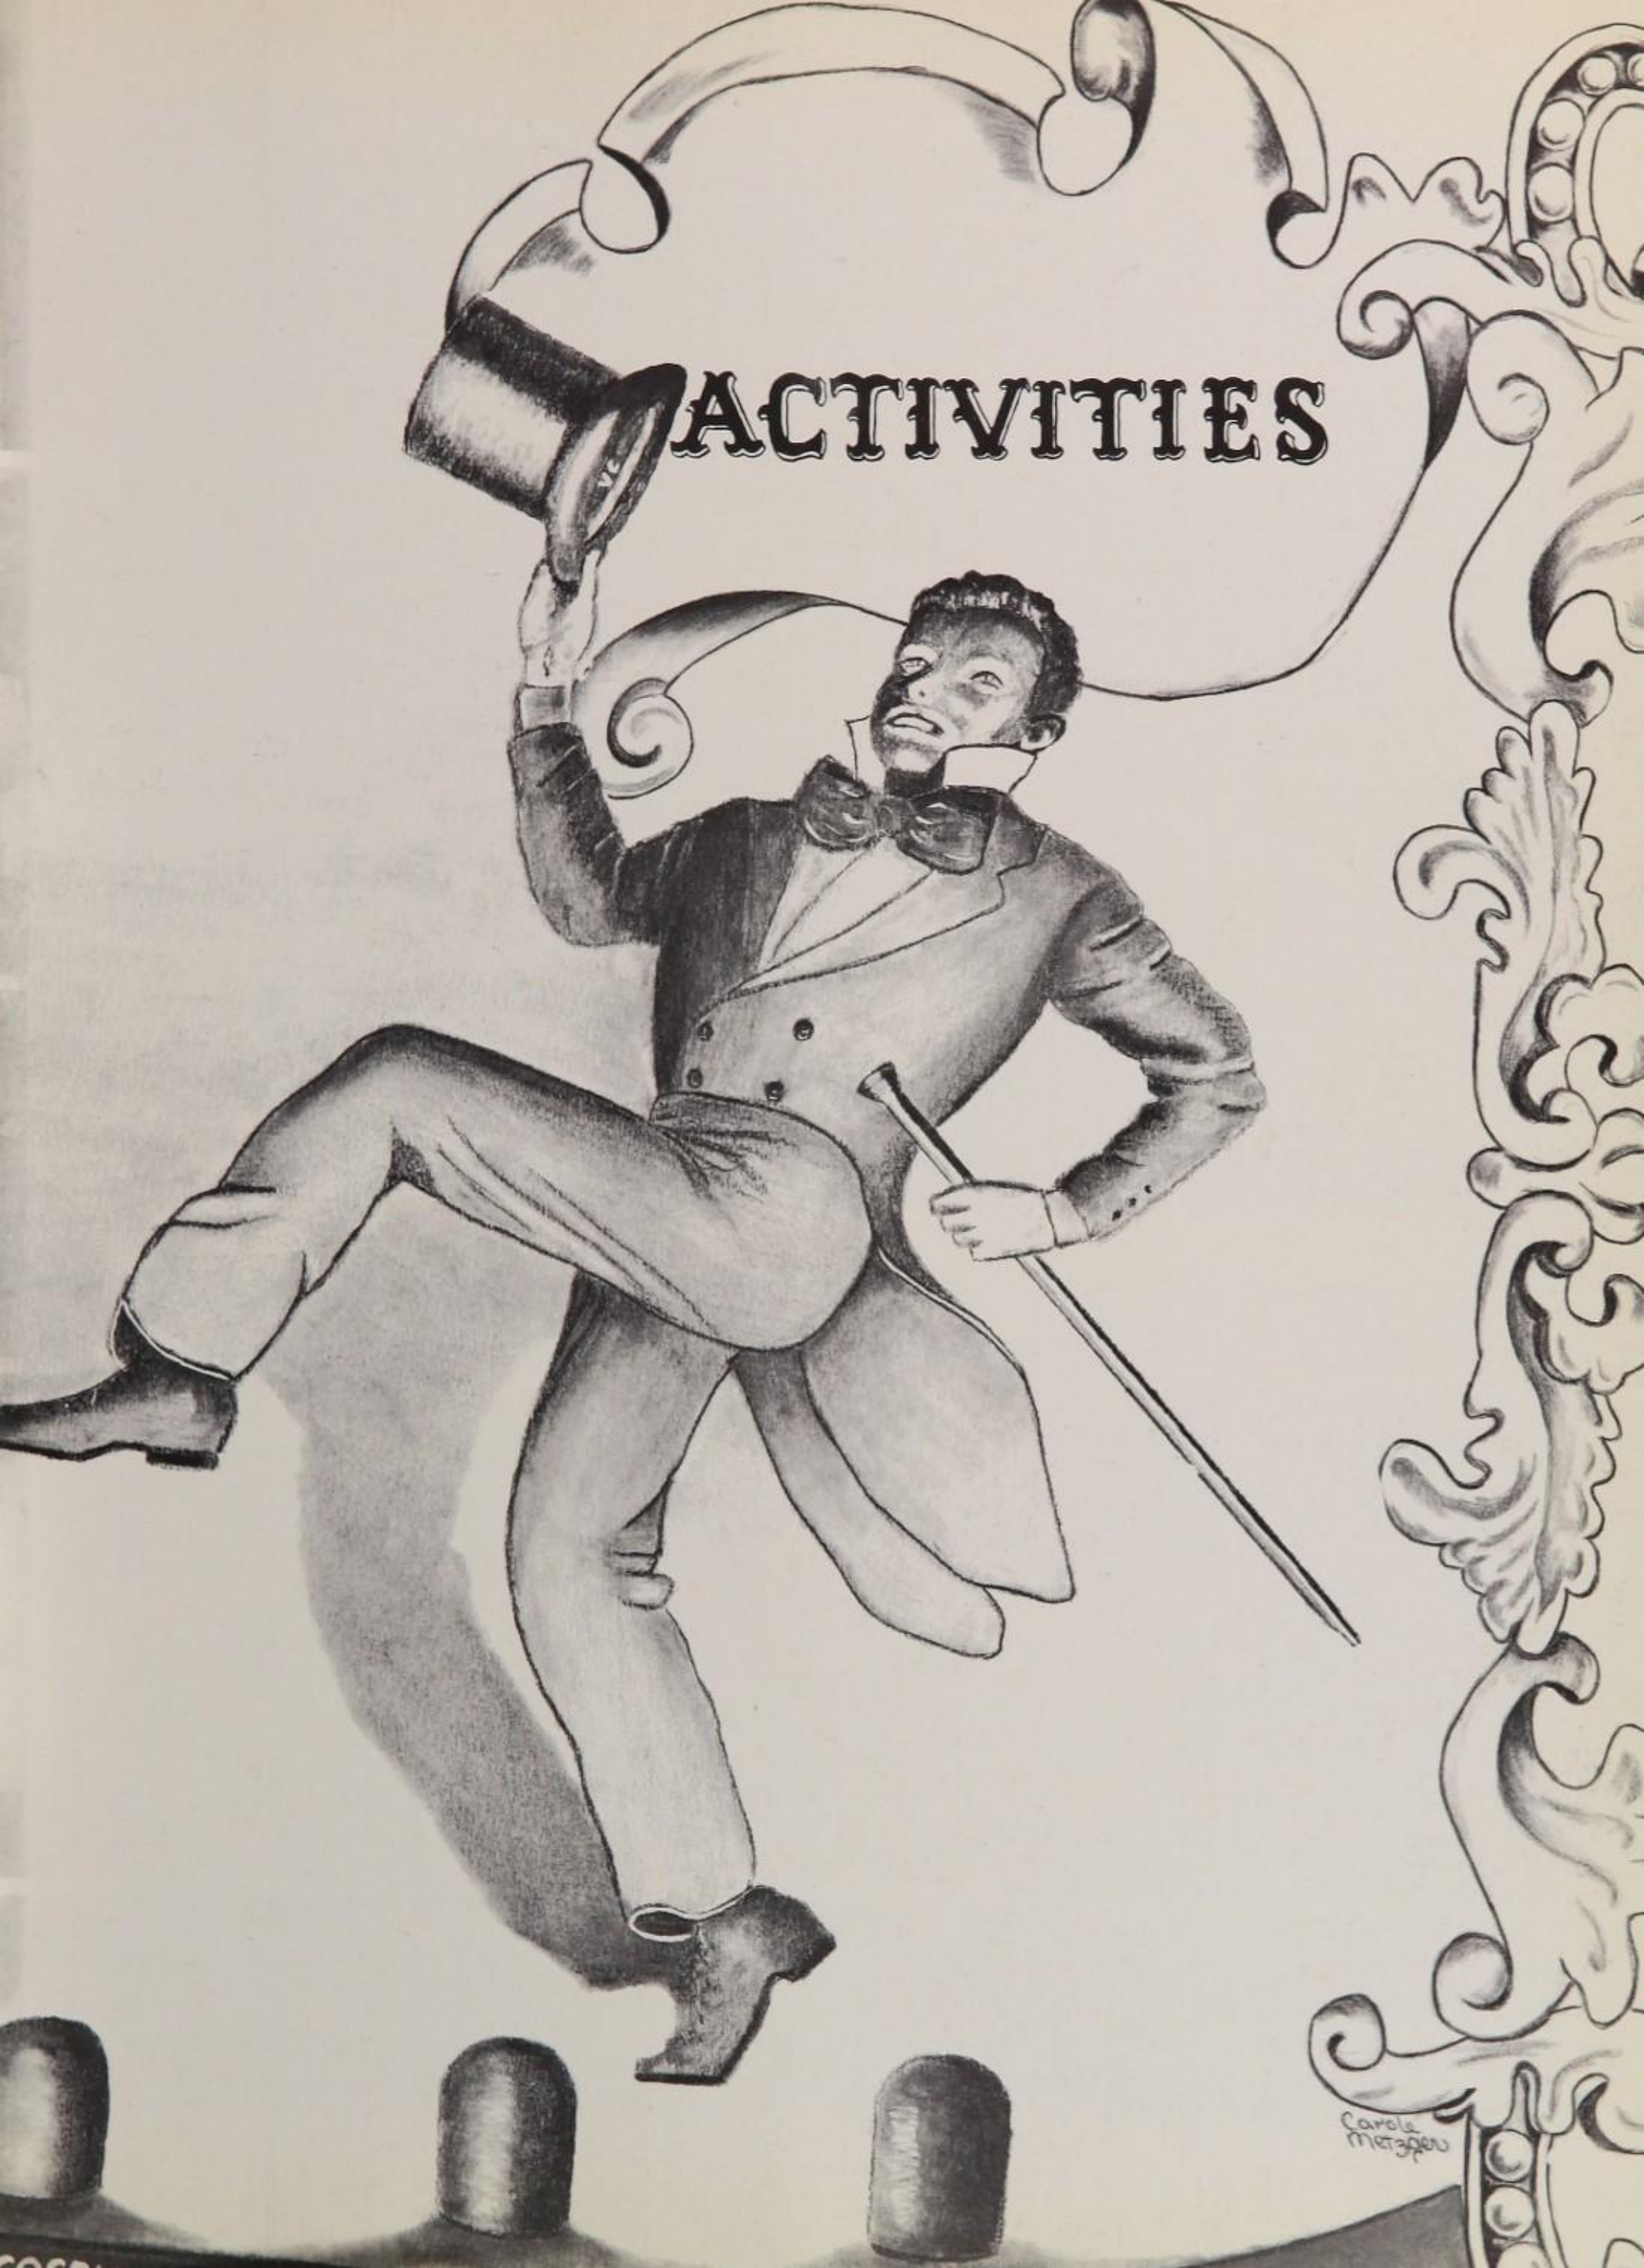
ACTIVITIES



The General Organization

Under the fine leadership of Anthony Esposito, President; Gerald Amorasano, Vice-President; Lucy Beckley, Secretary; and Joseph Rende, Treasurer; the General Organization, the governing body of New Rochelle High School, has completed a very successful year. The G.O. overcame the obstacles presented by the split sessions and instilled school spirit into the student body of New Rochelle High School.

Special thanks is due to Miss Anna Bartnett, faculty advisor, and to Mr. Charles Shaw, faculty treasurer, for the time they devoted to the functions of the General Organization.

"Kick-Off," the first "G.O.-sponsored" dance was a huge success and led to the prompt scheduling of another. The funds from these activities and from the sale of G.O. cards and bookcovers gave the G.O. money which was spent for choirs, paid-assemblies, and sporting events of the year.

The Constitution of the G.O. provides that committees be set up to help the school run efficiently. These committees and their heads were: Finance Committee, Joseph Rende; Assembly Committee, Elizabeth Belsky and Eleanor Seidman; Elections Committee, Carol Eisenberg and Barbara Greenberg; Dance Committee, Anne Marcus and Henry Moses. The parliamentarian was Robert Kogan.

The entire school is grateful to the G.O. for the wonderful job it has done this past year.

G.O. Committees

G.O. Council

National Honor Society

An inspiring and beautiful ritual was once again performed at New Rochelle High School, when twenty members were elected to the National Honor Society. Each year a number of students, who have achieved high academic and excellent citizenship records, receive the honor of being inducted into this distinguished organization. The seniors inducted were: Lucy Beckley, Arthur Brill, David Brockway, Richard Clark, Michael Gerstein, John Graham, George Henry, Linda Kopp, Robert Kogan, Charles Le Vine, Martin Rogoff, Stephen Lyons Schlesinger, Barney Skolnik, James Wiener, Deborah Zucker, and David Kelly, president; Simon Green, vice-president; Lucretia Slaughter, secretary; and David Nawi and Lenore Maltz, members-at-large.

Under the guidance of Miss Florence Errant, Honor Society sponsor, the standards of the society were vividly presented in a candlelight induction ceremony. A candle was lit for each of the four qualities which an individual must possess to qualify for membership: scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and service.

Orchestra

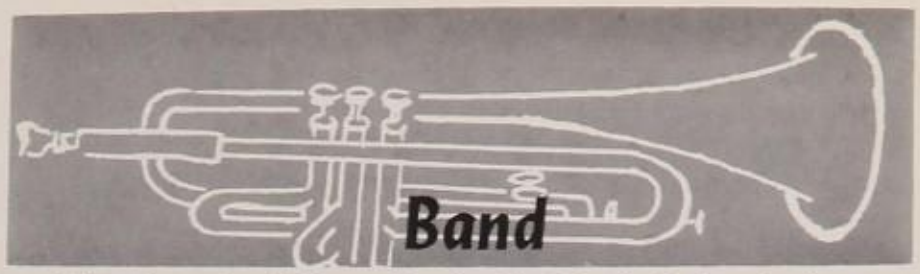
It is unusual that a high school orchestra obtains such a high standard of performance as has our own school orchestra.

As proof of this fact, the New Rochelle High School orchestra was invited to attend the New York State School Music Association Conference held in Rochester in December. It was a wonderful experience for the group who participated, and it is hoped that in future years the orchestra will again receive similar honors.

Selections performed at the Christmas Concert included "Overture to the Messiah" by Handel, and Leroy Anderson's "Festival Overture." The always-inspiring "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah, performed by the combined choirs and orchestra, concluded the program.

The Spring Concert included such numbers as the first movement of Haydn's Symphony #11 and Jerome Kern's "Show Boat." Some of the same selections were performed before the judges of the New York School Music Festival in which the orchestra has received an "A" rating every year it has entered.

Mr. Haigh's patience and sincere interest have contributed greatly to the excellence of the orchestra.



Band

The band of New Rochelle High School plays an important part in the spirit of the school. It is an annual part of the color and excitement of the fooball season, and this year was no exception. Through constant practice under the able leadership of Mr. Haigh, the band perfected their marching and formations with which they entertained the spectators at half-time.

One afternoon a week the concert band meets to prepare numbers for the concert and the contest. Selections performed in the Spring Concert included "March Militaire" by St. Saens, "Academic Festival Overture" by Brahms, and "Guadalcanal March" by Richard Rodgers.

As a participant in the New York School Music Association Festival for the past nine years, the band has received an "A" rating and again made an outstanding performance.

A great part of the excellence of the band is due to the untiring efforts and fine direction of Mr. Haigh.

"A" Choir

Choirs

The choirs at New Rochelle High School, under the direction of Mr. C. J. Broadhead, deserve recognition for their splendid performances throughout the year. Some three hundred singers have expressed themselves successfully in the annual concerts and school assemblies. They have upheld the name of our school in exchange programs with other schools and in various programs before community organizations.

During the year individual choirs have made several outside appearances. The double octette sang at

A graduate of Massachusetts Military College, Mr. Donald W. Connor, a new member of the Business Department, will help coach hockey this year. Miss Theresa Costa, schooled at the Teacher's College of Connecticut, has previously instructed at Cheshire High School in the same state. Returning again to New Rochelle High School, where she had taught in the years 1939-'40, Mrs. Adele K. Gelbman will instruct typing.

Communities often build monuments to statesmen and generals. Rarely do they build monuments to their teachers. Sylva Kunce was a teacher, a dedicated and devoted teacher, a great teacher. She needs no marble monument. Her monuments are in the lives and hearts of men who are better men, better fathers, better citizens now, because once they were boys in her classes. Her monuments are girls who have become happier, more understanding, better wives and mothers. Every one of us has benefited by her influence. These are lasting monuments.

The ever widening ripples of her influence touched and will touch people she never even knew. Her guiding principles were those of two of the world's greatest teachers, Socrates, who said: "Know thyself!" and Jesus, who said: "Love ye one another."

This tribute is by no means final. It is her immortality that the seeds of love and understanding which she planted so generously will continue to flower and to spread. Love is stronger than death. Good-bye, dear friend.

The Rochellean

Each year approximately thirty seniors elect Publications as a subject and ultimately become the staff of our yearbook. This hard-working group battles every day over problems such as the theme, the dedication, and the page-planning in the hope of producing a yearbook worthy of the class it represents.

This year the diligent and efficient Co-Editors Martha Cohn and Ben Apfelbaum were accompanied on the Editorial Staff by Associate Editors Anne Klotz and Arthur Brill; Literary Editors Judy Lipkowitz and Nancy Levin and Assistant Editors Rosemarie Torricelli and Richard Granat.

Without the efforts of the entire Publications class, the Rochellean could not have been published. The students took charge of senior pictures and write-ups, as well as various other assignments. The work of the Rochellean Yearbook Staff did not cease until the yearbook was completed and in the hands of each and every subscriber.

Our deep appreciation goes to Miss Anne Hilda Koff, our yearbook advisor, whose never-ending efforts made possible this yearbook, the Rochellean, 1958.

Junior Class History

The Class of 1959 has continued this year to be successful in every academic and athletic activity it entered. The whole class, led by Frances Italiano, President; Fred Parker, Vice President; Mabel Lee, Secretary; and Joseph Cerreta, Treasurer; displayed unusual ability in all it tried to do. Gerald Amorosana brought added honors to his class in his able performance as Vice President of the General Organization.

In sports ranging from football to basketball to track, many Juniors were prominent. Members of the reams as James Small, Richard Austin and Frank Finsthwait in football, and Tom Breunich and Frank Finsthwait in basketball gave evidence of such. Magnus Lagenkranz and Larry Small were successful in hockey, while All-Counties Steve Bauer and Jan Triggs proved victorious running, and Jerry Amorosana certainly helped our baseball team. The Class of '59 is assured of winning many athletic laurels next year.

The Junior Class not only participated in sports, but also helped boost the players morale. With peppy cheerleaders as Bonnie Goldberg, Betsy Glickman, Vicki Kahn, Sheila King, Lois Rifkind, Lucille Brewton, and Diane Weber, along with the twirlers Arlene Wiener, Emily Alber, Louise Krauetz, Carolyn Winters, Nancy Sheddon, Betty Fisher and Yvonne Demery our school will surely excel next year.

Musically and dramatically the Junior Class also proved their worth. Many participated in the band, orchestra, and choir. Elizabeth Dilsizian and Peter Boeve were given the distinction of being in the Double Octette. Many Juniors played significant parts in the plays given at school.

The year of 1957-1958 was successfully concluded with the Junior Prom. It was a a dance to be remembered quite fondly by all who helped and came to enjoy. There is no doubt that the Class of 1958 leaves the school in very capable hands. May we wish the Class of 1959 the very best of luck!

The Junior Council

The Junior Council, directed by Frances Italiano, President; Fred Parker, Vice President; Mabel Lee, Secretary; and Joseph Cerreta, Treasurer; led their class to a successful and profitable year. The Council was responsible for all functions of the "Junior Class." Their most important job was the Junior Prom which was held in late spring. Through various cake and candy sales at basketball games, and the sale of basketball boosters, the Junior Class obtained funds. With this money they strove to make the Junior Prom the best ever, and they reached their goal. The Junior Class can look forward to a wonderful "Senior" year.

The members of the Junior Council were: Dianne Altman, Lois Arvidson, Peter Boeve, Peter Brady, Arthur Cohen, Joseph Darling, Heidi Eberhardt, Frank Finsthwait, Ronald Fish, Ronald Garfunkle, Susan Grobstein, Diane Johnston, Mina Joseph, Howard Kirkendall, Eleanor Landres, Margaret Lewis, Henry Moses, Elaine Moskowitz, Judy Prince, Keith Polakoff, Elaine Segal, Philip Sewer, Lawrence Small, Margaret Small, Carol Well, and Arlene Wiener. Mr. Katz was the sponsor of the Junior Council.

Sophomore Class History

OFFICERS

Donald Breismeister

Sally Sloan

Jean Nishikawa

Andrew Nevai

There have been few classes in recent years that have entered New Rochelle High School with as much spirit and will to work as this year's sophomore class.

The leaders of this fine class were elected in late February and performed excellently. They were: Donald Breismeister, President; Sally Sloan, Vice-President; Jean Nishikawa, Secretary; and Andrew Nevai, Treasurer.

Many sophomores aided, with outstanding play, our varsity sports' winning records. Richie Meyers and Tom Tallernini gave a boost to the varsity football team, while Bob Tannenbaum and Dick Santisario were prominent in varsity basketball.

When thinking of hockey, the names of Bill Miller and Howard Krosney are well-remembered.

Marsha Knoff, Elli Dickler, and Judy Shedden were members of the twirling squad.

Sports were not the only activity that the sophomores joined so willingly. A great many members of the class were in band, orchestra, choir, and clubs. They have all added to the fine quality of these organizations.

The class presented a play for the school entitled, "The Dabblers." Freya Kawaller, Rochelle Lazarus, Dale Morgan, Frances Segal, Rebecca Shahmoon, Janet Steinberg, Carol Rose, and Sandra Zeretsky aided in this long-remembered production.

There can be little doubt as to the success of this fine class in the future. They will lead N.R.H.S. to many wonderful things.

Sophomore Council

The Sophomore Council, headed by Donald Breismeister, Sally Sloan, Jean Nishakawa, and Andrew Nevai, was the planning body of the class and of its functions. Excellent guidance was offered by Mr. Zaccagnino and Mrs. Cussu, faculty sponsors.

A very successful sophomore dance was held on May 2. It will long be remembered as one of the most gala evenings of the year. Funds for the dance were raised by a cake and candy sale on April 25.

Members of the Sophomore Council were: Stephen Breecher, Frank Bruno, Josephine Cittadino, Marjorie Fink, Sharon Horn, Joan Lagrotteri, Joy Lebow, Florence Mallard, Peter Miller, Dale Morgan, Robert Okin, Sally Raymond, Janice Roth, Judy Sanford, David Seidman, Janet Steinberg, Joyce Teti, and Stuart White.

Now that the work of the Sophomore Council is over we can all see how much their hard work has accomplished for the Class of 1960.

Varsity Football

Under the able guidance of Lou Amonson, the varsity football team once again had a successful season. The Purple Wave compiled an impressive 6-1-1 record against some excellent private, public, and parochial school competition. The lone defeat was suffered in the opening game to ever-powerful Mt. Saint Michael. However, the remainder of the 1957 "grid" season was a story of complete success—with the exception of the moral victory that Blessed Sacrament scored in the 6-6 tie.

The co-captains, John Counts and Randy Forrest, were the only returning starters from the previous year. Counts, duly nicknamed the "Purple Rave," was sensational throughout the entire season and was truly the backbone of the team. He finished the season with twenty-one touchdowns and 137 points to his credit. This esablished a new county record and was just short of a state one. Counts, who is labeled as one of New Rochelle High's all-time "greats," was named to the first string All-County team, as was Huguenot center, Harry Herman. Linemen Randy Forrest and Carl Palazzo were second string All-County. Other stalwarts of the hungry Huguenot line developed by coach Paul Ryan were Dave Gallin, Craig Allen, Robert Long, Frank Finswaite and Stu Jones. Defensive standouts were Anthony Fillat and Roosevelt Umpsted. The varsity backfield worked around quarterback Byron Sugahara. Some of the outstanding "backs" were Richard Austin, Jim Small, Ted Gamble, and Bryan Sugahara.

Highlights of the terrific season were the 18-7 uspet of arch-rival White Plains and the overwhelming defeat we handed to the New York Military Academy. Coach Amonson's pre-game strategem of promising to shine all the players' shoes if they were victorious over the Plainsmen, made the win even more enjoyable. In the second contest, the highest score since 1950, Austin and Small each scored touchdowns, giving evidence of backfield strength for next year.

Cheerleaders

Led by vivacious co-captains Ronni Danciger and Mary Ann Ferrara, New Rochelle High School's cheerleaders blazed a path of victory for its athletic teams. The squad enthusiastically performed at football games, basketball games, and pep-rallies, inspiring with spirit and liveliness all those present. The girls merit special recognition for the addition of several new cheers to New Rochelle's repertoire.

Sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Holub, the squad included seniors Judy Canter, Nona Green, Janet Saleh, Lucretia Slaughter, and Dorothy Zabinsky. Junior cheerleaders were Lucille Brewton, Betsy Glickman, Bonnie Goldberg, Vicki Kahn, Sheila King, Lois Rifkind, and Diana Weber. Aiding the squad were Mickey Herbst, Barry Lieberman, Jeff Moross, and Tony Shaw.

This year's cheerleaders will long be remembered for their pep, optimism, and endeavors.

Twirlers

Precision, beauty, and color were added to the football games this year by our New Rochelle High School twirlers. The girls at half-time demonstrated their flawless twirling ability and kicked gracefully to the tune, "After You've Gone." Special praise goes to their intricate Thanksgiving performance which was greatly admired by the many spectators.

An added attraction was the fire baton twirling by Drum Majorette Dorothy Bromley, who had exercised fine leadership throughout the year. Other members of the squad were: seniors, Sue Bromley and Janet Weber; and juniors, Emily Alber, Yvonne Demery, Bette Fisher, Louise Kravets, Nancy Shedden, Arlene Weiner, and Carolyn Winters. Sophomore twirlers were Ellie Dickler, Marcia Knopf, Barbara Meyer and Judy Shedden.

We know that New Rochelle High School will long remember the organization and skill shown by this year's squad.

Cross-Country

This year, the N.R.H.S. Cross-Country team kept its traditionally fine record. Coach Wally Pina and his team are certainly to be congratulated for their consistent wins. In competition with some of Westchester's finest teams, New Rochelle was always on or near the top.

Outstanding harriers on the squad, captained by Dave Nawi, were: seniors, Ken Barclay, Ken Martin, Nawi and Martin Rogoff; juniors, Steve Bauer, Vin Citarella, Don Fairey, Julian Goldsmith, Fred Parker, Alvin Smith, Jan Triggs and Chris Vasillopulos; sophomores, Peter Miller and David Peretz. Both Bauer and Triggs, the top New Rochelle runners, were named to the All-County team.

Sparked by these two, New Rochelle had a satisfactory season in dual meets, won second place in the W.I.A.A. and Section One meets, and fourth place in the "Coaches and Officials" meet.

A great loss to Coach Pina and to the rest of the team was Ken Barclay's leg injury early in the season which left him incapacitated for some time.

Yet the Cross-Country team worked hard and had a good season with many victories to their credit.

Varsity Basketball

The New Rochelle High School basketball team, sparked by co-captains John Counts and David Brockway, who finished in the second and third slots in the WIAA scoring race, compiled a very successful 12-5 season's record. After the squad's early season nine-game win skein, the Huguenot's record stood at an impressive 12-1. The optimistic hoopsters now had their sights set on the WIAA, Intra-City and Section I crowns. Unfortunately they ended the season by losing their last four contests, thus relinquishing their seemingly tenacious grip on the last two of these three championships. However, their 6-3 WIAA record was good enough to retain that title. In the Section I playoffs the team lost a thriller, in double overtime, to arch-rival Mamaroneck.

Although the '58 squad suffered many disappointments, there were many moments of glory too. Counts' speed and Brockway's rebounding ability, in addition to the fine shots of each, made them weekly heroes. They both received All-County honors, Counts on the first team, and Brockway honorable mention, as recognition of their outstanding ability. Seniors Jeff Kahn and Richard Tarlow contributed much to the success of the team as did Lou Krongold, Paul Arvidson, Tom Breunich, Barry Walker, Jay Marcus, and sophomore Dick Santisario and Bob Tannenbaum. All in all under the auspices of mentor Paul Ryan the NRHS Varsity maintained its fine reputation.

Hockey Team

The New Rochelle High Hockey team brought honor to the school this year by becoming co-champion of the Westchester Inter-scholastic Hockey League. Coached by Art Morgan, the team compiled a 7-2-1 league record and 15 points which was only equalled by Ossining.

After decisively downing Sleepy Hollow, Greenwich, and Mamaroneck, the Purple Wave lost to Ossining in a hard fought contest. But the senior-studded team came back to beat Darien. In second round competition, New Rochelle defeated Sleepy Hollow and Greenwich, was tripped by Mamaroneck, and was tied by Ossining in the closing seconds of play. The champions then outplayed Darien to clinch the tie.

The first line, comprised of Stan Jaffe, Art Keller, and Scott Wachenheim, played smooth hockey all year. Goalie Jim Webber was always brilliant in the nets and saved many a game. He, as well as the forwards, grew confident of the alert and aggressive play of the defense sparked by Jim Doyle, Glenn Cooper, and Paul Campbell. Freddy Breismeister and Marty Greifinger were also outstanding players. Much credit must also be given to the high scoring second line. Dan Jelline, Bob Seldner, and Dave Kobrin won the admiration of all who watched them.

New Rochelle outshone all other teams as it won five berths on the W.I.H.L. all-star squad. Wachenheim was elected to the first team, Keller to the second, and Jaffe, Doyle, and Webber to the third.

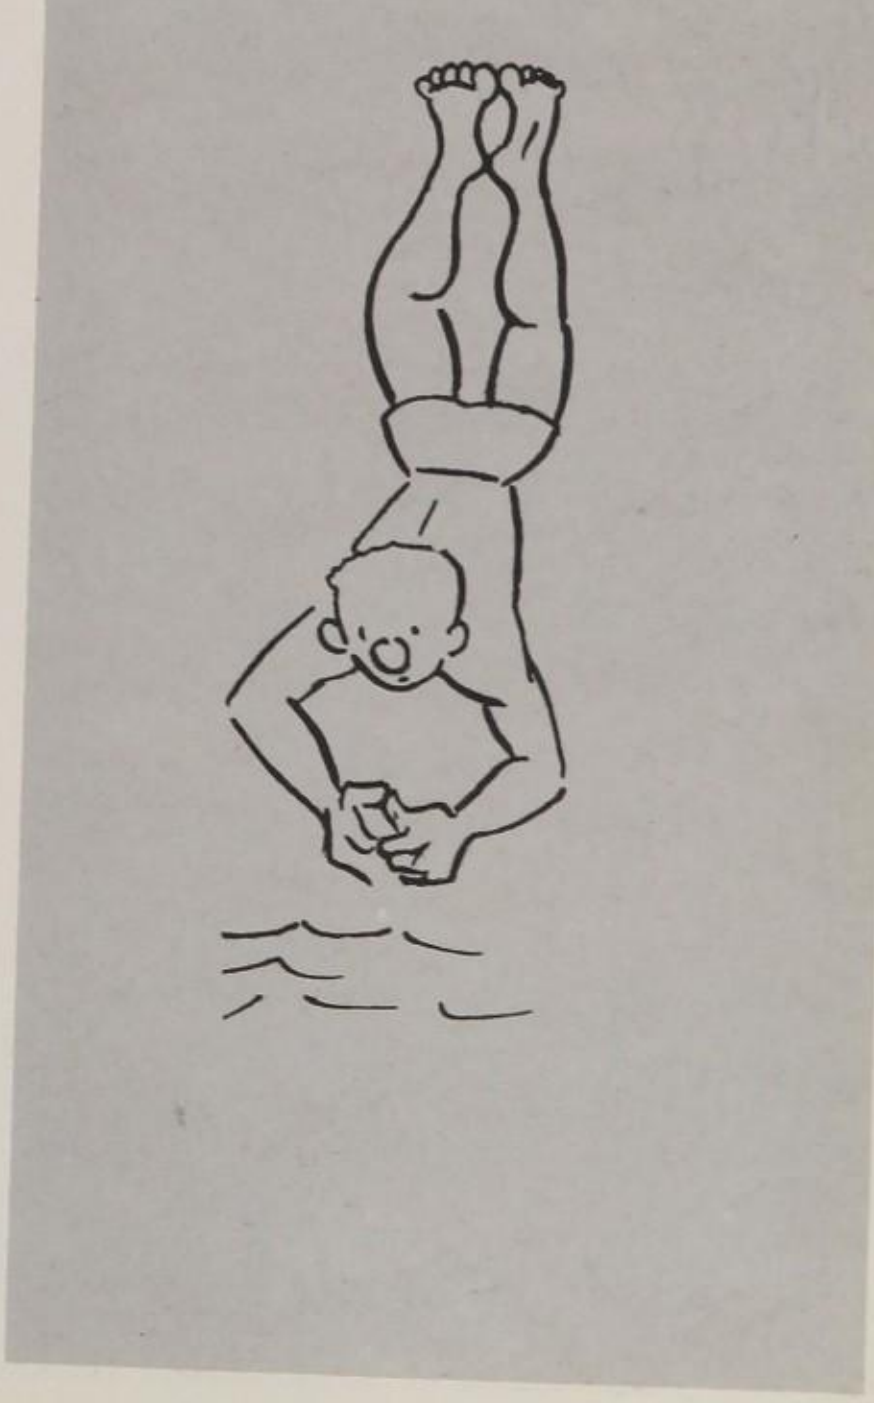
Gifted with several talented sophomores, Coach Morgan is looking forward to bringing New Rochelle High School even more glory next year.

Swimming Team

The New Rochelle High Swimming Team, led by Captain Alan Greenbaum, can boast of a very successful 1957-58 season. Coached by John Keller, the squad participated in the Rye Invitation meet, the W.I.A.A. county meet, and the Section I meet.

Comprised mostly of juniors and sophomores, the team showed many individual successes. Tommy Mullen, a junior, lost only two races in his high school career. Other leaders for the Purple crew were Thomas Wilson, Ken Anderson, Larry Charmatz, and Bob Wylie. Likewise, Mike Eisman, Paul Yankow, Doug Robinson, Dick Mullen, and Jerry Rosen were very promising sophomores.

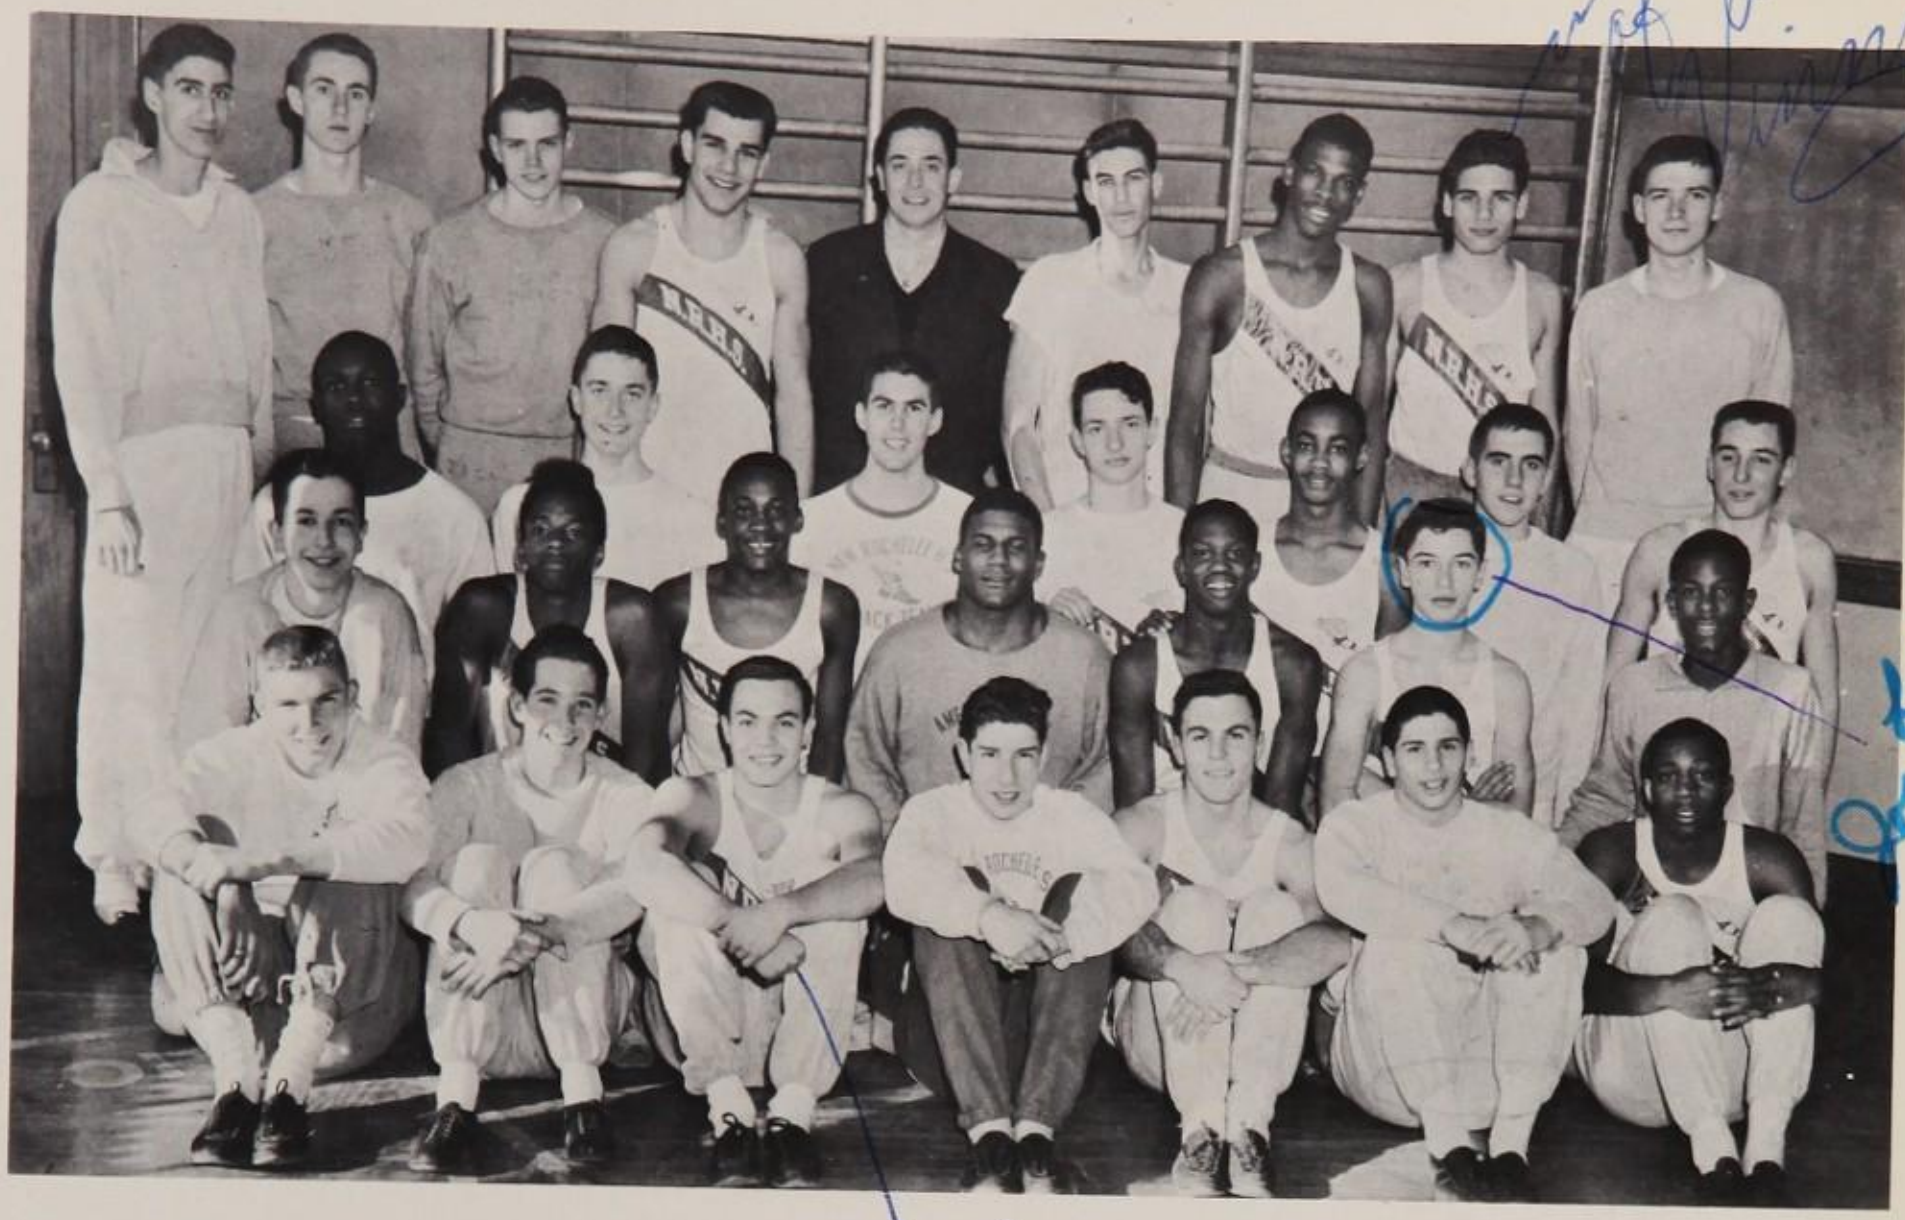
Alan Greenbaum, whose backstroke was a reliable point-gainer, encouraged more boys to participate. The Swimming Team showed a marked improvement this year, and promises to be even better next year.



Baseball

Once again the New Rochelle High School baseball team, under the experienced leadership of Coach John Keller, participated in the perennial contests against rugged WIAA competition. Some of the more outstanding returnees were co-captains Lou Krongold and Sam Melillo. Other standouts were ace pitchers Richard Tarlow and Robert Long. The other indispensable members of the Huguenot nine were Jerry Amorosana, Byron and Bryan Sugahara, Tom Bianchi, Glenn Cooper, Donald Fairey, Alex (Butch) Hendrie, Steve Kleinman, Steve Schlesinger, Al Baio, and Gene Bell.

The squad began the 1958 season on April 22 against Edison Tech. The Purples then met Stepinac, White Plains, A. B. Davis, Iona Prep, Mamaroneck, and Port Chester in subsequent contests.



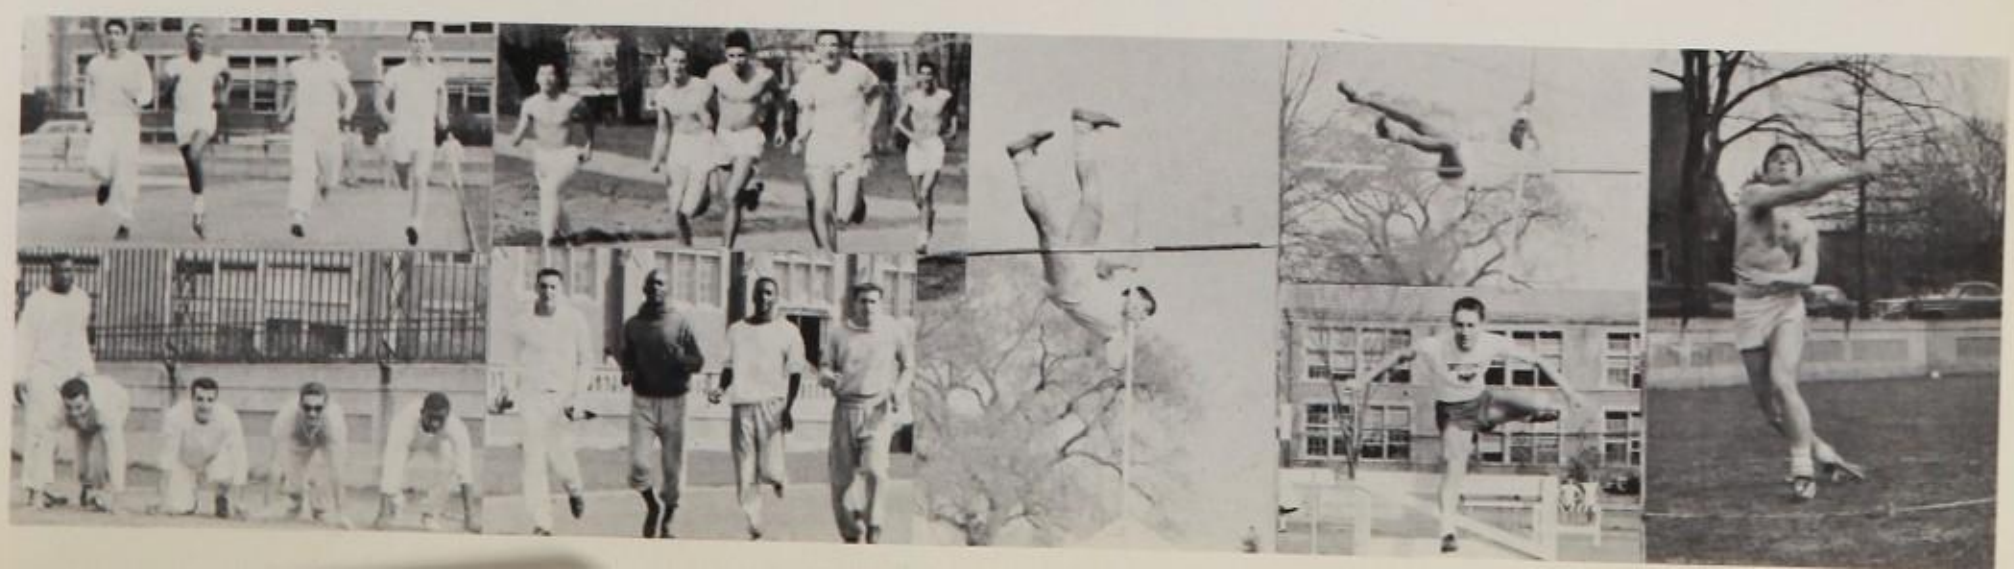
To Jack.
Lots of luck in the future,
but don't forget Heicel.
Martin

Track

The 1958 team maintained the perennial high standards of previous seasons. The cindermen were an outstanding group of well-conditioned athletes, who were moulded into a winning combination by mentor Pina.

The team, piloted by co-captains Martin Lapidus and Dwight (Dewey) Gardner, was ably assisted by fine sprinters like John Counts, Richard and Arnie Austin, and Fred Capasella. Other notable team members were Bill Markowitz, Richard Greenberg, Kenneth Barclay, Steve Bauer, David Nawi, Dave Brockway, Jan Triggs, and Joe Ceretta. Some of the indispensable participants in the field events were Fred Breismeister, Randy Forrest, Roosevelt Umsted, Henry Moses, and Peter Boeve.

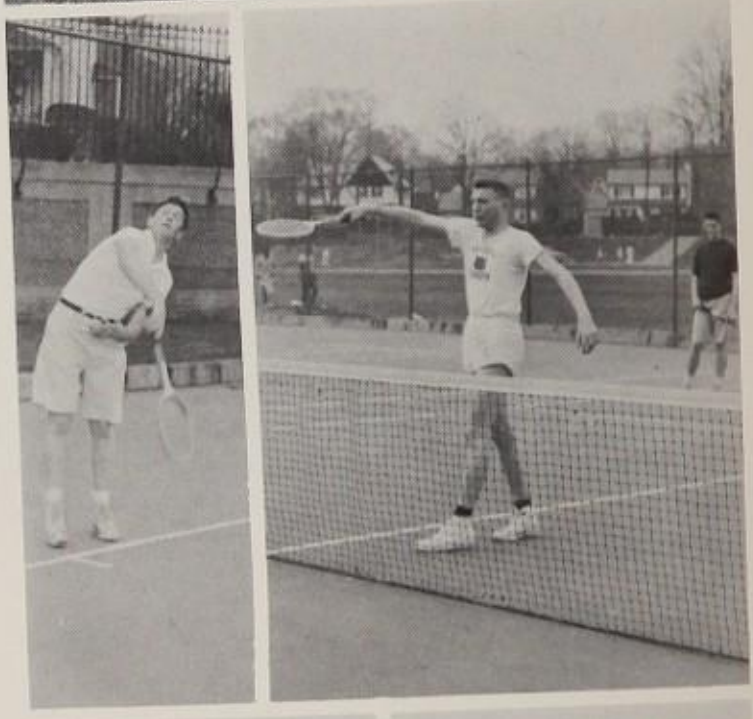
In the course of the season the team competed in twelve different meets. The first endeavor, the Queens-Iona Relays, took place on April 18. Other competitions of paramount importance were the dual meet against arch-rival White Plains and the Class A Championships. The finale of the season, the N.Y. State Championships were on June 7.



Golf Team

The New Rochelle High School spirited golf team, coached by Paul Ryan, looked forward again to capture the WIAA championship. Captain Steve Frankel, Jose Rolz, Billy Rosenberg, Magnus Lagercrantz, and Steve Tarlow, composed the team.

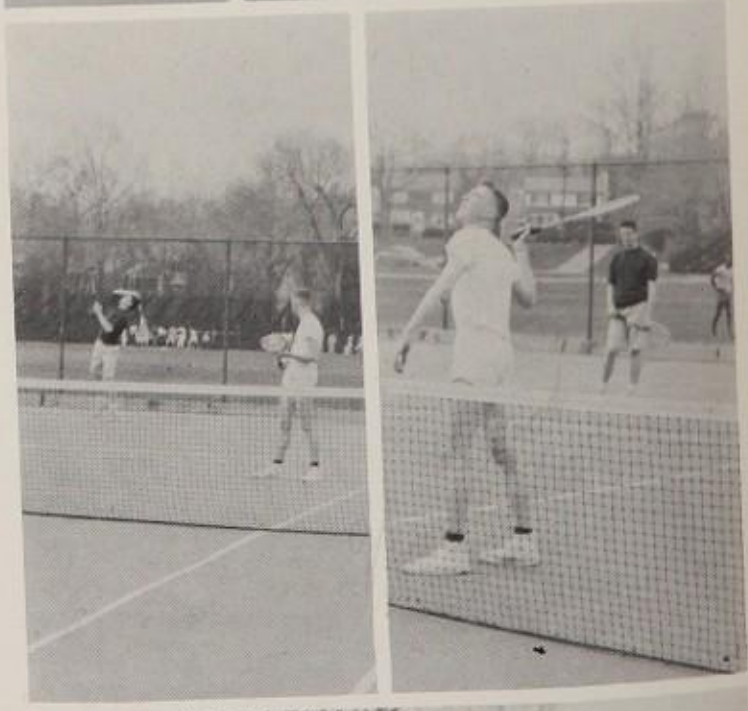
This spring the Purple Golfers played WIAA matches against Mamaroneck, White Plains, Portchester, A. B. Davis, and Gorton. Iona Prep was also challenged for the city championship.



Tennis Team

This year's varsity tennis team was composed mostly of returning lettermen. Their experienced courtmen drove this spring to defend the WIAA crown which they had held eight of the last nine years. Dale Schreiber, Barry Emanuel, Jim Wiener, Stu Kahn, Scott Wachenheim, Mike Gerstein, and last year's number one player, Jeff Kahn, all returned to make the prospects of Coach Lou Amonson's team optimistic. Sophomores on the team were Billy Gedalicia and Pete Jacobs. Other reserve members of the squad were Joch Kotch and Frank Finsthwait.

Tournaments were scheduled at Roosevelt, Iona, Mamaroneck, A. B. Davis, Scarsdale, Stepinac, Bronxville, and White Plains.



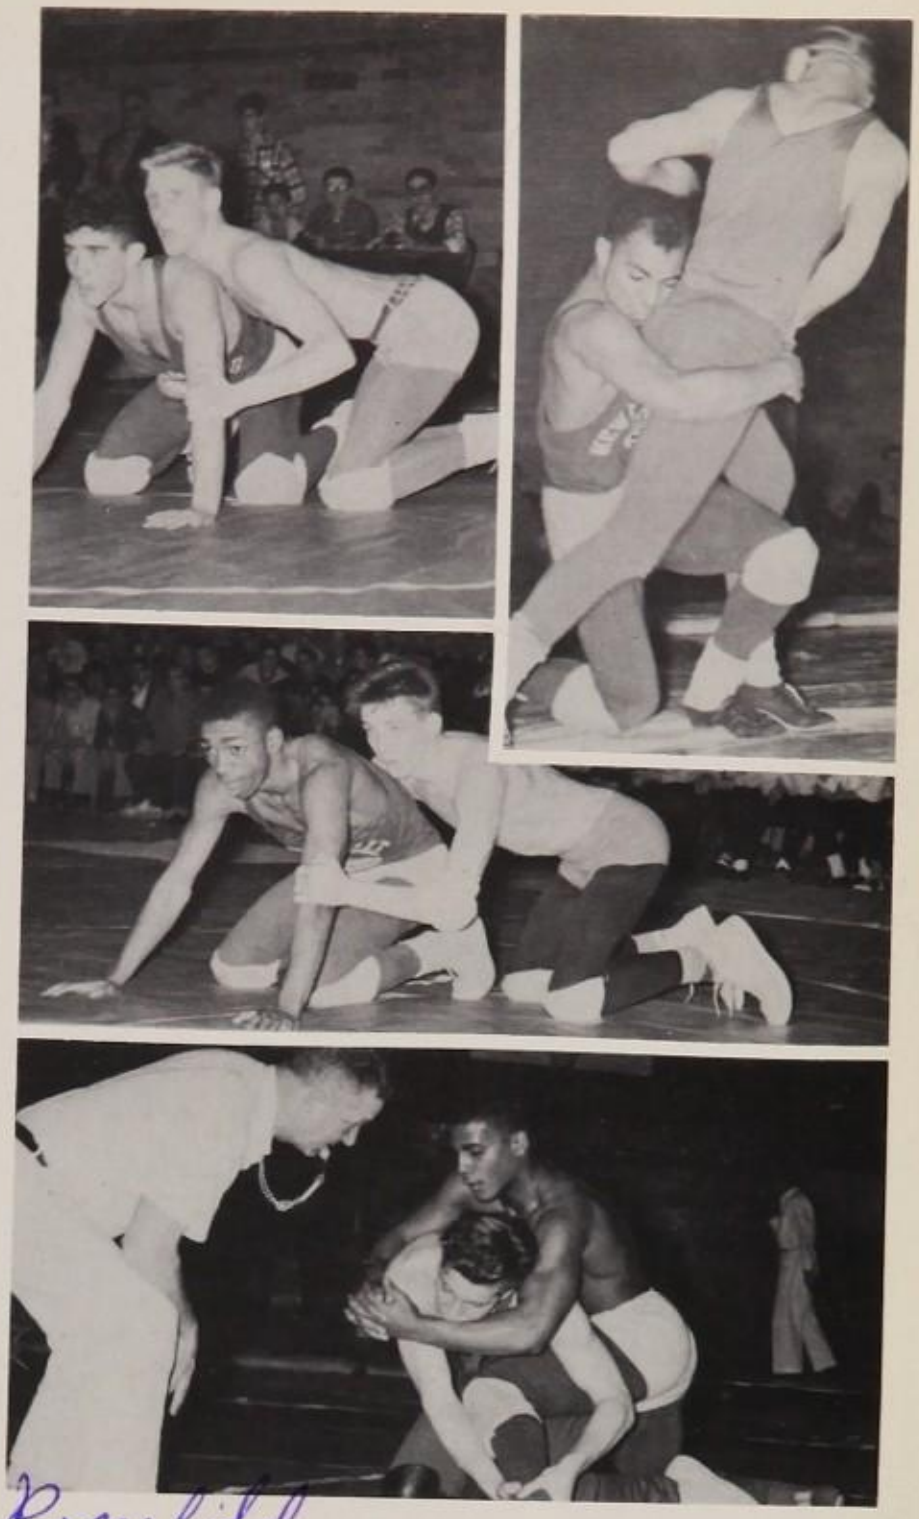
Wrestling

The New Rochelle High School wrestling team praises co-captains David Gallin and Randall Forrest for their outstanding victories. So far, we are the only undefeated team in Section I, which consists of Westchester, Putnam, and Duchess Counties.

Under the leadership of Coach Lou Amonson, the season was very successful for the purple matmen. Here is an account of the prominent men in their respective weight divisions:

95 pound class	Anthony Fillat
103 pound class	Neslie Gunthorpe
112 pound class	Oliver Davis
120 pound class	Matthew Diamond
127 pound class	Fred Taylor
133 pound class	Roosevelt Umstead
138 pound class	David Gallin
145 pound class	David Lee
154 pound class	Byron Sugahara
165 pound class	Jeffrey New
175 pound class	Randall Forrest

In the unlimited class there were Craig Allen, Randall Forrest, and Oliver Davis, champion from last year. There was a great interest in the Wrestling Team consisting of 74 members. The outlook for next year is very good, with many promising 10th graders.



To "Strap"
from Jeff "Canvasback" Rosenfield

Riflery

The New Rochelle Rifle Team, led by co-captains Ross Jasper and Harry Jacobs, started the season off rather slowly. Mr. Wintman, the sponsor, said to chalk it up as a year of experience.

Some of the inter-school competition had been against Roosevelt, A. B. Davis, Scarsdale, Portchester, White Plains, Mamaroneck, and Stepinac. The team practiced and fired its home matches at the Naval Armory in New Rochelle. They used .22 calibre target rifles.

The team consisted of sophomores, David Lifton; juniors, Mark Sternfield, Mark Robbins, Peter Goldenberg, Marc Flaster, and Harry Jacobs; senior, Byron Sugahara.

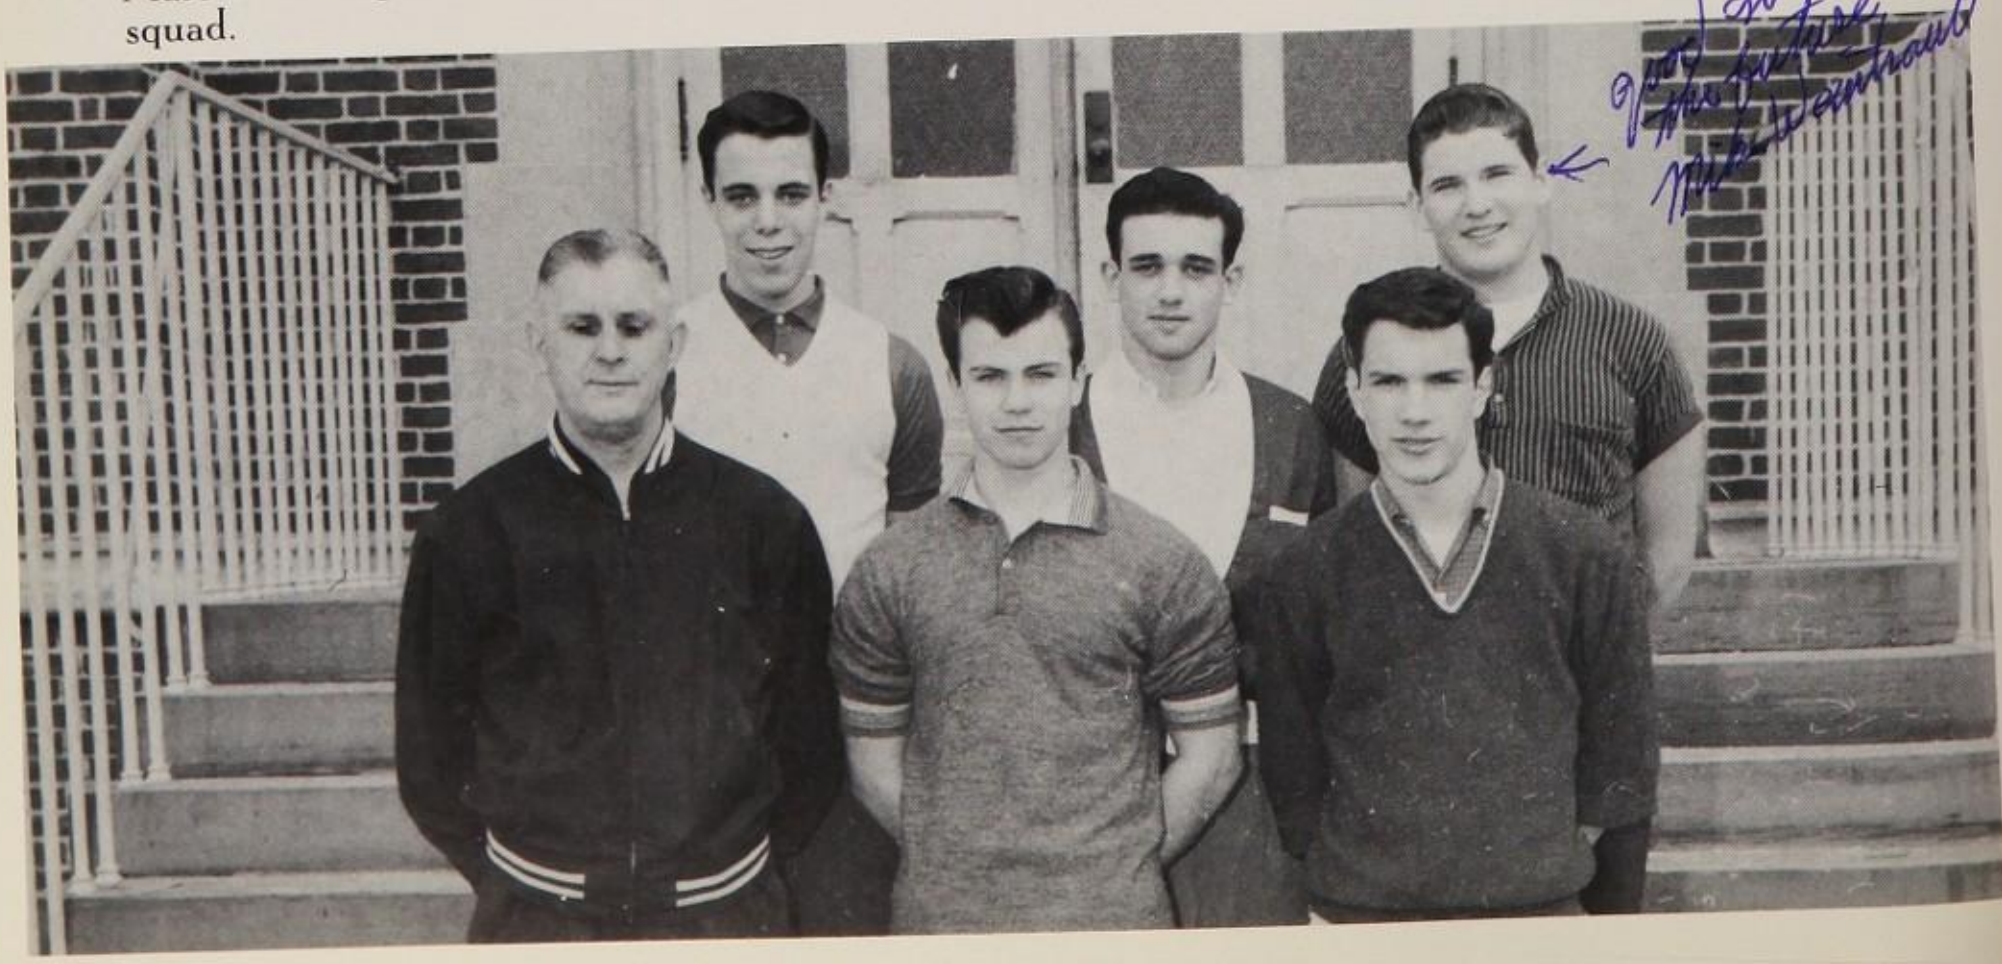
The general concensus is that the Rifle Team was made up of good marksmen, but with a little more experience they will improve. Harry Jacobs, the one-letter man from last year, and Marc Flaster greatly helped to strengthen the squad.

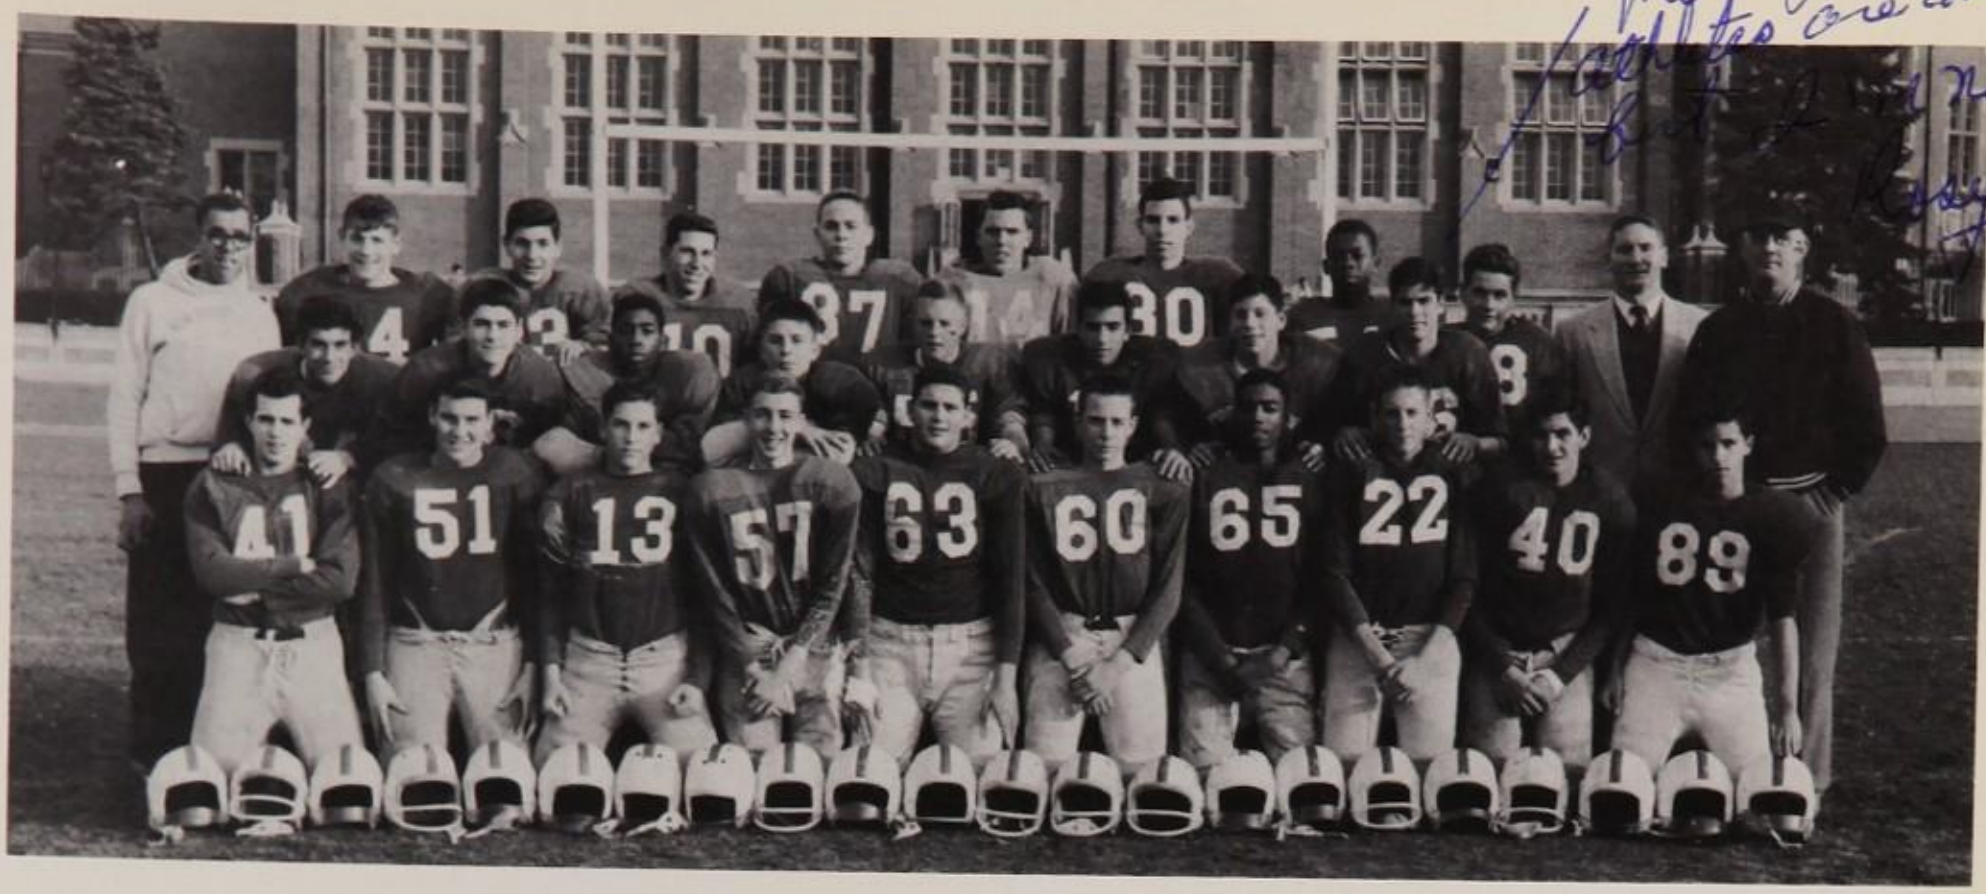
Bowling

The New Rochelle High School Bowling Team was organized under the capable direction of Coach John Keller. As in the past, an intramural program was arranged consisting of six four-man teams. From this program, the top bowlers were chosen, and these boys comprised the varsity bowling squad.

This year Coach Keller scheduled matches with Concordia Prep., Iona, Mamaroneck, and Salesian. The home matches were played at Roger's Bowling Center. The team also entered the W.I.A.A. tournament in which, as in previous years, they have been very successful.

Captain Robert Long and Leonard Samela were the most consistent players; they did an excellent job to maintain the team's rating. The other members were Howard Zimmerman, Mike Weintraub, Jerry Rukin, Jeff Handler, Leonard Samela, Karl Hammel, Don Fritsche, and Richard Quattroni.





J.V. Football

The "Jayvee" football team this year, coached by Mr. Keller, won two games and lost four. They defeated Iona and Gorton and were beaten by A. B. Davis, Mt. St. Michael, White Plains and Stamford. An interesting side-light of this series occurred at the Stamford game. We were winning the entire game, but during the last minute of play one of Stamford's players ran for a touch-down making the final score 13-12.

Some of the boys on the "J.V." showed their skill and played for the Varsity while continuing to play "J.V." ball. Arnold Austin and Richard Mayers, co-captains of the team, were able to play for the Varsity. Arnold Austin was outstanding in his performance this year and was certainly one of our most promising players.

J.V. Baseball

The junior varsity team, coached by Mr. Zaccagnino, including several juniors as well as sophomores had a full season, playing eight games. The first four games with White Plains, A. B. Davis, Iona Prep and Mamaroneck were played at home. Our team then went away to play the four remaining games against the same schools.

The juniors on the team included Edward Bogdonoff, James Limardi, Norman Pfeffer, Domingo Sepulveda, Philip Serwer and Mike Stillman. The sophomore slate consisted of Jefferey Bernback, Frank Kardonone, Charles Chagares, Louis Fitzner, David Godfrey, Paul Godsick, Harvey Goodman, Leonard Metz, Alan Rich, Martin Rosen, Robert Tanenbaum, Charles Weiss and Robert Zuccaro.

J.V. Hockey

The J.V. hockey team was able to play only one game out of their two game schedule due to inclement weather. The game was nip and tuck all the way; however, they lost the game to Trinity Pawling, by a score of two to one.

This year there was a larger turnout of sophomores for the J.V. than in any previous year. Bob Miller and Doug Kapp were the outstanding players. Larry Osborne, Howard Krosney, Bill Anderson, and Bob Klein also showed great promise. All of these boys are sophomores and should stand an excellent chance of playing on the Varsity next year. Their coach Arthur Morgan says. "These are the kids who will make up the Varsity next year because we lose our entire Varsity team this year."

J.V. Basketball

The J.V. basketball team was skillfully piloted this year by Don Zaccagnino. Mr. Zaccagnino took over for Paul Ryan, the Varsity coach, early in the season.

The J.V. showed an impressive record of nine wins and eight losses. They scored 635 points in seventeen games, averaging 37.3 points a game.

Gene Bell and Frank Finsthwait were the high scorers and should be of great help next year. Other outstanding players were Paul Fores, Jeffrey "Socky" Smith, Don Breismeister, and Richard Mandel, the playmaker.

The team improved immeasurably in defense as the season progressed.

Modern Dance

Modern Dance, composed of girls of all sizes, shapes, and experience, was led by Miss Rita Rogers with Mrs. Dempsey, Mrs. Holub, and Mrs. Towle occasionally bringing up the rear.

The greater part of the classes was devoted to a variety of exercises and limbering-up routines. The group also worked across the gym floor in order to practice walks, runs, and leaps, involving coordination and precision. But what was most fun of all was improvisation, the free expression of rhythm and ideas through dance movements.

For improvisation, the large class of about fifty girls split up into small groups of four or five, worked out their short sequence of movements, and presented it to the rest of the group for helpful criticism. In one case, conflicting rhythms and various height levels (sitting, kneeling, standing) among the girls in a group, created a syncopation of movements which was interesting to watch. At other times improvisation was really more like charades, for the group portrayed a nursery rhyme in dance movements to see whether the class would recognize the rhyme.

During February and March, in preparation for the physical education demonstration, the Modern Dance group rehearsed a jazz routine called "The Maggie Blues."

Although the dance group didn't meet as much as it might have liked, the hours that were spent in dance were certainly good exercise and tremendous fun, mostly because of the enthusiasm and interest of Miss Rogers.

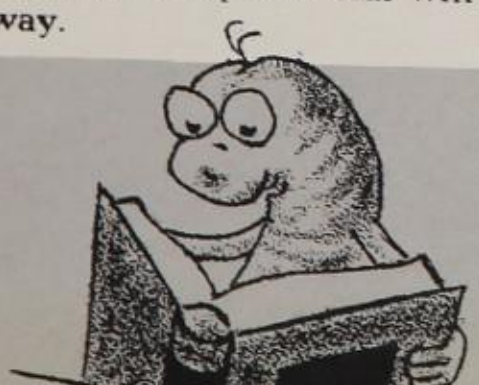
Junior Prom. Juniors make it a big night.

May 30
Memorial Day . . . Another cause for a holiday. Hang on! The end is almost here.

June 13-20
The final judgment week—Regents! ! !

June 20
Senior Prom—the dance, the city, the breakfast parties, the beach—parties all over again! ! ! ! ! "No-Doz" anyone?

June 24
Graduation . . . A day long anticipated; yet, now that it is here it is not so welcome. That final hand clasp and tear will be shed. The last look at the tower and we're on our way.



Last Will and Testament

The time for us to leave is near,
Gather ye 'round so you can hear,
Of treasures that we've held so dear,
Left for you in your Senior year.

The knowledge of running this three-ring show,
Is left to Fran, Mabel, Gigi, and Joe,
By Dave, Abby, Lucy, and Ski,
Whose leadership brought us to victory.

Johnny Counts has set the pace,
Who can ever take his place?
Shooting baskets is Dave's favorite sport,
He passes the ball to Tom down the court.

The serene beauty of Nancy C.,
Is bequeathed this day to Roanne D.
While the good looks and charm of Jean
Erlichman,
In '59, Joe Cerreta will win.

The girls in room 12, fifth period lunch,
Leave carrots and celery for Juniors to munch.
Sue who's found knitting all the while,
Leaves her needles to Judy with a smile.

Ronnie and Malcolm are sure to receive,
Scholarly ways that Linda and Dave leave.
A well-rounded future for Carolyn we see,
As Lucretia leaves her versatility.

The blond crew-cut and height of Paul,
Will be acquired next year by Larry Small,
As Marilyn leaves her pony tail display,
To a Junior girl—she's Susan K.

For Doris, Eleanor, and Sandy wedding bells
will chime,
Junior girls, it will soon be your time.
Please permit us to borrow a phrase from
'56's adieu.
Nancy, Judy, Carole, and Ronna "refuse to leave their pins to you."

The mighty muscles of "Harry the Horse,"
Will be found, next year, in Jeff New, of course.
Mary Ann, as cute as can be,
Will be followed by Betsy, a Senior-to-be.

The guitar-strumming talent of Tony Marfe,
Is left to Karl Hammil to liven the day.
Dorothy has twirled her way to fame,
Nancy is sure to do the same.

Harvey and Lou leave their gambling ways,
To the Junior boys who indulge in this craze.
Pete Downsborough leaves his trusty old jeep,
To take the place of Hank Moses' heap.

Scot, Artie, and Stan pass the puck,
To next year's team with wishes of luck.
For his swimming Alan is famed,
Tom will follow him, it is claimed.

Laurie and Paul send Cupid along,
To Jerry and Wendy with a merry song.
Bryan or Byron, which can it be?
The Levensons, too, are a mystery.

Grace is a girl you'd like to meet,
Stephie acquires her manner so sweet.
Lynn's red hair is striking, they say,
We bequeath it now to Joanie J.

For Junior boys, dates galore,
That's what next year has in store,
While Junior girls, you've had your fling,
To last year's memories you will cling.

The amiable ways of Rosemarie T.,
Emily will display for all to see.
We will miss Mr. Hacke, it is true,
But Junior girls, he'll be there for you.

The journalistic ability of Richard and Liz,
Has made this year's Herald what it is,
While the Rochellean is given by Martha
and Ben,
To those Juniors who are quick with the pen.

Flashlights are left by Seniors who hate,
Coming to school at five of eight,
To those underclassmen who will be in a fix,
Leaving N.R.H.S. at a quarter of six.

The Senior prom with all its beauty,
We owe to the efforts of Steve and Judy.
This is a night we shall long remember,
Wherever our paths may lead in September.

Our gifts are given, our task is through,
We've nothing more to leave to you,
But Juniors dear, one last thought,
Have fun next year in Senior Court.

Our high school days are over now,
But we will always remember somehow,
The sharing of our joys and sorrows,
Through everyone of our tomorrows.

PROPHECY

One night Chicken Little, he went to bed
And he just couldn't sleep, so he dreamed instead.
It's his crazy dream we're gonna try to tell
About the sky that fell in New Rochelle.
It sounds pretty messy, but swallow your fears,
We're sure it won't happen for at least ten years!

So it seems like there's this cool undergrad chick name of Little polishing the grass in Senior Court one day when suddenly this flying tea bag cracks him on the bean. So like I mean man he didn't know what was coming off here. So he glimmed the turf roundabout but he didn't lamp anything fakey. So he percolated real cool like the sky is falling. "That wasn't no sputnik man," says he. "The sky is droppin' and I'd best be hoppin! Oo bop she bam, I'm taking it on the lam." So he like legged it over to the nearest medic, who was a slick chick by the name of Shady Helen Brady. He flipped his lip and hollered "The sky is falling!" "Easy, greasy," said she, "you're all shook up. Let's take it again from the top." "Like what I mean is, the sky is shooting back at us at last!" he yelled. "Things are tough all over, Daddy-O," she replied real cool. "Now you just pad out over there and our medic team featuring Tuerk, Rapp, and Jackier will be shagging in in a minute. Hey Docs! This kid has a case—he thinks the wild blue yonder is cracking up." "Sorry," they said, "this jazz ain't in our key—let's call in the headshrinker."

So next on the scene was Doc Kalmanson. "What's buggin' ya, kid?" he asked. "The sky is falling, Doc; put your couch on your back and run!" "Say kid, do you dig the Madison Avenue jackets? I mean real real narrow, man—or Ivy League with sleeves that buckle in the back?" "Oo bop she bam, it's time to scram!" said Chicken Little, and he hit it over to the local copper Hoarse Harry with the combo right on his tail feathers. "Call out the force, the sky's off course!" he lipped. "Don't get shook, Mac," snapped Harry, "we just want to get the facts, man!" So Chicken Little sort of went hophead and like panicked. "Chicken Little, you're inciting a riot, and this is the straight poop!"

Before you could say Shazam, two cats from the "Stranded Rats" fell in, Dick Greenberg and Dizzy-Lizzy Belsky. "What's the dope, canteloupe? I mean like give us the bop, pop." "The sky is falling," said Little, "I mean like the overhead is lower than Robert Hall's!" So Harry says: "You've had it, kid; into the paddy wagon, dragon!" "Oops, bad scene! Later for you, gumshoe," and with that Chicken Little peeled out and took off with the cops and the reporters joining the combo. Said the reporters: "Hey, dig this scoop! It's the biggest thing since Johnny Counts shamed the Harlem Globetrotters into quitting basketball!" So I mean like here was Chicken Little doing double-time down the main drag, and all these cats indoors were digging these wild sounds: "The sky is falling! The sky is falling!" So they just naturally made tracks for the cement.

First on the scene were Judy Amorosana, Helen Silano, and Angela Catullo, curler twirlers from the local beauty parlor. "The hair is falling in there!" they cried. "Make way, make way! Hats are back in fashion!" Next was Joan Cooper from the dress shop. "Hemlines are falling! The potato-shaped knees are going back in the sack!" As the combo samba'd past the Meyers-O'Brien car dealers (a new hard-top incontrovertible), the head mechanic, John Straccia, strolled out. "Hey now then there so, the transmissions are dropping!"

Suddenly, with a roar like a hot Krupa crescendo, a whirlybird settled down and a chick stepped out—it was a female Smilin' Jack named Cruisin' Susan Portman. "What's all this jive," said she. "The sky is falling!" said Chicken Little. "Skeedooten day, you don't say? As I was landing this crate, I lamped the altitude and it was droppin', man, all the way." Right about then it seemed like there was this big sound; like I mean man, they all thought Lawrence Welk burst his bubbles, and the Thespians Leni Ginsberg, Melody Latimer, Bob Kane, and Caryl Rudner and the set designers Angela Zaccagnini, Nancy Cowen, Paul Schnall, and Leon Bolognese from the New Rochelle Playhouse made hot feet for the street, shouting: "Daddy-O, the scenery is falling!" Tweeters and woofers Emil Pisani, Margaret Barstow, Judy Cameron, and Eleanore Costa from the Playhouse Kool Kombo lipped it up: "Watch those pitsfalls, keed! We're sinking fast—this is no clip, we gave up the ship!"

Then there was a big wail from Mama Davis' Reet-Eating Place and Mama Brenda Davis made it like her soufflé was falling. Then as the combo was making a stroll by the local Weather Bureau, Simon Green and Bob De Santo hit the street with "Dig this, cats, I mean like, let's get poppin', the barometer's droppin'!" So Chicken Little was leading them all over the New Rochelle High golf course, past the outdoor swimming pool, across the student's parking lot, up the picnic area, and down the ski slope, when these teachers Ronnie Mutchnik, Lucretia Slaughter, Elsie Whitehead, and Janet Saleh stepped up and said: "Slip me five, jive—the Romans are through; I mean like the Empire is falling!" Then Chicken Little is out with "Later for you, 'gator. The sky is coming downstairs bit by bit, and I gotta get architects Pete Downsborough and Dick Barsamian to prop her up again."

All of a sudden like, the Chick spots a couple of State Police, Paul Kopyscianski, Louis Vaccaro, Bill Mueller and Robert Benz: "C'mon sport, we're going to court!" Says Little: "Oo bop she bam, I'm in a jam!" So this Chick went to court in the coolest precinct of endsville and was tried for inciting a riot by Judge Roger Craig, D.A. Barney Blarney Skolnik, and his lawyer Paul Pravda. Man, it was the boppingest when the Judge stuck his hand out the window and made it like the sky was real up there. Well now then there, so this Chicken Little was hanged as a witch. "Man," he said, "this is the end."
